Nick Fitzgerald

QUARTERBACKS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (1): Nick Fitzgerald (Jr.)
KEY NEWCOMER (1): Keytaon Thompson (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Nick Fitzgerald (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (0)

- The 2016 SEC leader in total offensive yards returns in Jr. Nick Fitzgerald (6-5, 230) ... All Fitzgerald did in his first year as a starter was shatter nine school records - four single-season and five single-game ... He also broke SEC single-season records for 100-yard rushing games by a QB (8) and average yards per rush by a QB (7.1)
- Fitzgerald has produced more 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing games (3) than any player in school history ... He completed 196-of-361 passes for 2,423 yards last season through the air ... His 1,375 yards rushing was third in SEC single-season annals by a QB behind only Johnny Manziel and Cam Newton
- Dual-threat true freshman Keytaon Thompson (6-4, 222), who enrolled in January, is likely to be Fitzgerald's backup ... Thompson was the 2016 Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year after leading Landry-Walker High School to the Class 5A state championship in December ... The New Orleans native accumulated 10,737 yards of total offense and accounted for 149 touchdowns during his prep career.

Aeris Williams

RUNNING BACKS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (4): Nick Gibson (So.), Dontavian Lee (Jr.), Alec Murphy (So.), Aeris Williams (Jr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (2): Brandon Holloway, Ashton Shumpert
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Aeris Williams (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Brandon Holloway

- Jr. Aeris Williams (6-1, 217) changed the complexion of MSU's rushing attack late in 2016 ... Williams averaged 102.8 yards per game in the last five contests of the year, including a career-best 191 yards on 25 carries in the Egg Bowl ... The "A-Train" finished the year with 720 yards rushing and averaged 5.3 yards per carry

- So. Nick Gibson (5-11, 211) and Jr. Dontavian Lee (6-1, 235) bolster the Bulldogs' depth at the position
- MSU signed the nation's No. 6 ranked high school running back in Kylin Hill (5-11, 210) of Columbus, Miss. ... Hill, who enrolled as a true freshman in June, is the highest ranked Bulldog running back signee since five-star Jerious Norwood in 2002

Donald Gray

WIDE RECEIVERS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (7): Jamal Couch (So.), Malik Dear (Jr.), Donald Gray (Sr.), Jesse Jackson (Jr.), Keith Mixon (So.), Gabe Myles (Sr.), Dedrick Thomas (So.)
LETTERMEN LOST (1): Fred Ross
KEY 2016 REDSHIRTS (2): Osirus Mitchell (RFr.), Reggie Todd (RFr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (2): Donald Gray (Sr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Fred Ross

- MSU will have to replace one of the most decorated receivers in school history in two-time All-SEC Fred Ross, who finished his eligibility
- Sr. Donald Gray (5-10, 204) will lead the receiving corps ... Gray was second on the squad last season with 41 catches for 709 yards and five touchdowns ... He showed his explosive play ability by leading the SEC in 70+yard catches with two
- Speedsters So. Keith Mixon (5-8, 184) and So. Dedrick Thomas (5-9, 185) return ... Mixon had a solid debut with 19 catches for 228 yards and two touchdowns
- MSU will gain some height as So. Jamal Couch (6-4, 230), RS Fr. Reggie Todd (6-4, 204) and RS Fr. Osirus Mitchell (6-4, 210) are poised for big years ... Couch played as a true freshman and bulked up
- Jr. Malik Dear (5-9, 224), who started nine games last year, suffered a torn ACL during spring practice in March and his status is uncertain

Farrod Green

TIGHT ENDS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (3): Farrod Green (So.), Justin Johnson (Jr.), Jordan Thomas (Sr.)

LETTERMEN LOST (0)

KEY 2016 REDSHIRTS (2): Dontea Jones (RFr.), Christian Roberson (RFr.)

STARTERS RETURNING (1): Farrod Green (So.)

STARTERS LOST (0)

- MSU is loaded with depth at tight end, returning all three who saw significant action at the position a year ago while welcoming two players who redshirted in the fall
- So. Farrod Green (6-3, 239) was the primary starter in 2016 and will be a leader on offense in 2017 ... Green caught 11 passes for 121 yards and one score but proved to be a punishing blocker
- Jr. Justin Johnson (6-3, 243) is a solid pass catching threat, while Sr. Jordan Thomas (6-5, 284) is an imposing target who is in his second year with the program

Martinas Rankin

OFFENSIVE LINE

LETTERMEN RETURNING (5): Deion Calhoun (Jr.), Ronald Cochran (Jr.), Elgton Jenkins (So.), Harrison Moon (So.), Martin Rankin (Sr.), Michael Story (So.), Darryl Williams (So.)

LETTERMEN LOST (3): Jamaal Clayborn, Devon Desper, Justin Senior

KEY 2016 REDSHIRTS (3): Greg Eiland (RFr.), Dareuan Parker (RFr.), Stewart Reese (RFr.)

STARTERS RETURNING (3): Deion Calhoun (Jr.), Elgton Jenkins (Jr.), Martin Rankin (Sr.)

STARTERS LOST (3): Jamaal Clayborn, Devon Desper, Justin Senior

- MSU will have to replace three starters, including its starting center of the last two years in Jamaal Clayborn
- Sr. Martinas Rankin (6-5, 305) is projected as one of the top offensive line prospects in the 2018 NFL Draft ... Rankin enters his second year as a starter, seeing most of his action at tackle ... He played center the entire spring
- Due to injuries in 2016, MSU will still welcome back plenty of experience despite losing three starters ... Deion Calhoun (6-3, 315) and Elgton Jenkins (6-4, 308) join Rankin as the most veteran players ... Jenkins played both guard and tackle last season, while Calhoun was a primary option at guard ... So. Harrison Moon (6-5, 290) could also be in the mix at center
- Redshirt freshman Stewart Reese (6-5, 333) is a big presence and will be in the rotation this season ... He had an outstanding spring

Leo Lewis

LINEBACKERS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (6): Gerri Green (Jr.), Dez Harris (Sr.), Traver Jung (Sr.), Leo Lewis (So.), Josiah Phillips (Jr.), Tim Washington (So.)

LETTERMEN LOST (3): Richie Brown, Kelan Chairs, DeAndre Ward

KEY 2016 REDSHIRTS (1): Erroll Thompson (RFr.)

STARTERS RETURNING (2): J.T. Gray (Sr.), Leo Lewis (So.)

STARTERS LOST (1): Richie Brown

- MSU will have to replace Richie Brown in the middle, but linebacker will be a strength for the Bulldogs in 2017 under new defensive coordinator and linebacker coach Todd Grantham
- Athleticism will be aplenty starting with So. Leo Lewis (6-2, 235) ... All Lewis did in his first season was lead all SEC freshmen in tackles with 79 - 30 better than the next closest freshman ... For his efforts, he became the first Bulldog to earn FWAA Freshman All-America honors
- Sr. Dez Harris (6-4, 243) will provide leadership and Jr. Gerri Green (6-4, 245) and Sr. Traver Jung (6-4, 229) are poised for breakout seasons
- Look for RFr. Erroll Thompson (6-1, 250) to make an impact in his first season and high school All-American Willie Gay arrived in June

Jeffery Simmons

DEFENSIVE LINE

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8): Fletcher Adams (So.), Tre Brown (Jr.), Grant Harris (Jr.), Braxton Hoyett (Jr.), Kendell Jones (So.), Jeffery Simmons (So.), Marquiss Spencer (So.), Cory Thomas (Jr.)

LETTERMEN LOST (6): Nelson Adams, Johnathan Calvin, Will Coleman, Torrey Dale, Nick James, A.J. Jefferson

NEWCOMERS THIS SPRING (5): Lee Autry (Jr.), James Jackson (Fr.), Deion Pope (Jr.), Chauncey Rivers (Jr.), Montez Sweat (Jr.)

STARTERS RETURNING (0) (who started majority of games)

STARTERS LOST (3): Nelson Adams, Johnathan Calvin, A.J. Jefferson

- Despite the loss of several veterans, MSU's defensive line group will be primed for a big year with solid, young talent and leadership
- So. Jeffery Simmons (6-4, 307) will be the glue in the middle ... Simmons led all SEC freshmen in forced fumbles (2) and was tops among SEC freshmen defensive linemen in tackles (40) in 2016
- Athletic edge rushers will be aplenty for MSU: Returners So. Marquiss Spencer (6-4, 271), So. Fletcher Adams (6-2, 270) as well as junior college transfer Montez Sweat (6-6, 241) are expected to compete for a starting role ... Sweat comes from Copiah-Lincoln CC and played on the defensive line as a freshman at Michigan State

Brandon Bryant

DEFENSIVE BACKS/SECONDARY

LETTERMEN RETURNING (9): Brandon Bryant (Jr.), Tolando Cleveland (Sr.), Lashard Durr (Sr.), J.T. Gray (Sr.), Mark McLaurin (Jr.), Jamal Peters (Jr.), Chris Rayford (Jr.), Maurice Smitherman (So.)

LETTERMEN LOST (3): Kivon Coman, Jamoral Graham, Cedric Jiles
KEY 2016 REDSHIRTS (3): Korey Charles (RFr.), Cameron Dantzler (RFr.), C.J. Morgan (RFr.)

NEWCOMERS (4): Johnathan Abram (Jr.), Brian Cole (Jr.), Jaquarias Landrews (Jr.), Tyler Williams (Fr.)

STARTERS RETURNING (4): Brandon Bryant (Jr.), Tolando Cleveland (Sr.), Lashard Durr (Sr.), Mark McLaurin (Jr.)

STARTERS LOST (2): Kivon Coman, Cedric Jiles

- MSU's much improved secondary will feature a lot of depth and athleticism led by starting safeties Jr. Brandon Bryant (6-0, 213) and Jr. Mark McLaurin (6-2, 215) ... The two have combined to start 20 career games
- The Bulldogs welcome the return of Sr. Tolando Cleveland (6-0, 194) at cornerback ... Cleveland tore his ACL during fall 2016 camp ... Sr. Lashard Durr (5-11, 195) enters his second year with the program and will see time at the other corner
- The Bulldogs are loaded with talented newcomers in the secondary ... RS Fr. Cameron Dantzler (6-2, 174) has tremendous length and is expected to make an impact ... Junior college transfers Johnathan Abram (6-0, 214) and Brian Cole (6-2, 203) have Division I experience and could play right away ... Abram played at Georgia, while Cole was at Michigan
- Sr. J.T. Gray (6-0, 202) moves back to his more natural position of safety and will play a hybrid safety/linebacker role with his physicality

Logan Cooke

SPECIALISTS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (3): Hunter Bradley (Sr.), Logan Cooke (Sr.), Kody Schexnayder (So.)

LETTERMEN LOST (1): Westin Graves

- Sr. Logan Cooke (6-5, 228) is MSU's starting punter for the third straight year ... Cooke has averaged 41.1 yards per punt during his career
- Several walk-ons will be in the mix for the Bulldogs' place kicking role
- U.S. Army All-American Tucker Day could also play right away

2014 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
2014 AP SEC COACH OF THE YEAR

Consistency and longevity are two of the ultimate measures of a successful head coach. Few have personified that more than Dan Mullen, and he's achieved that in college football's toughest division. The 2014 National and Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Mullen has shaped Mississippi State football into a national contender. The 45-year-old begins his ninth season in Starkville after guiding the Bulldogs into unprecedented territory. That includes the fastest ascent from unranked to No. 1 in college football history and a school-record seven straight bowl games. On Dec. 10, 2008, Mullen officially became the 32nd head coach in MSU history, taking over a program that posted a 32-65 record in the eight years prior to his arrival. Since his first season of 2009, he has completely changed the culture in Starkville, developing a winning attitude both on and off the field, connecting with a fan base that has come out in record numbers and cementing a recruiting prowess in the state of Mississippi.

the Week" for the second time in Mullen's tenure.

Three weeks later, Mullen's squad secured a bowl berth with the most dominating Egg Bowl victory since 1916. The Bulldogs set four single-game school records in the 55-20 thrashing in Oxford. The 55 points were the most by any team in the Egg Bowl since 1915. Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald set an MSU single-game record in rushing yards (258), and he broke the SEC record for average yards per carry in a league game (18.4).

Mullen's 2016 senior class finished with 32 victories - tied for fourth in school history and just two shy of the school record. Of the top eight winningest senior classes in MSU history, four have occurred under Mullen's watch. The Bulldogs beat Miami (Ohio), 17-16, in the St. Petersburg Bowl on Dec. 26.

Fitzgerald, following in the footsteps of arguably the greatest player in school history, set nine school records in his first year as the starting quarterback. A once three-star recruit offered by only one Power 5 school (MSU), Fitzgerald shattered single-season league records for 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback (8) and average yards per rush by a quarterback (7.1). His top target, Fred Ross, became the first wide receiver in school history to earn first-team All-SEC honors in back-to-back seasons. Ross signed a contract with the Carolina Panthers in the spring of 2017.

In 2015, the Bulldogs celebrated another nine-win season highlighted by four road victories, a first since 1994. MSU put up a Belk Bowl record 569 yards of total offense to cap the year with a 51-28 win over NC State. Mullen's offense was spectacular. The catalysts for success were senior Dak Prescott and Ross. For the first time since 1978, MSU produced a first-team All-SEC quarterback and wide receiver in the same season. Ross became the first Bulldog to lead the SEC in receptions per game since 1978, shattering the single-season record for catches with 88.

Prescott put the finishing touches on the greatest career in program history. A once three-star recruit, Mullen developed Prescott into a polished passer as a senior. He shattered 38 school records and became one of only four players in FBS history to throw for over 9,000 yards and rush for over 2,500 yards in a career. Only two players in SEC history have ever achieved the feat with another Mullen protégé being the other in Tim Tebow.

Unprecedented Success

Mullen (61-42, .592) enters the 2017 season just four victories shy of tying College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen (65-19-3) for second in Bulldog all-time wins. In 2017, Mullen ties McKeen as the second-longest tenured coach in school history. Mullen's winning percentage ranks second in MSU annals among those who have coached six or more years. Only McKeen's .764 from 1939-48 is better.

Mullen has cemented the Bulldogs as one of the best in the SEC West as MSU ranks second in victories since 2014 (25) in college football's toughest division, which has produced a national title game finalist in 10 out of the last 11 years. He enters the 2017 campaign as the SEC's second-longest tenured current head coach behind only Alabama's Nick Saban (11th year).

Mullen has produced three seasons of at least nine victories in the last seven years, including the school's first back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2014 and 2015. To put in perspective, there were only four nine-win seasons at State in the 109 years prior to Mullen's arrival.

Bowl games have become the norm at State under Mullen's guidance. Prior to his arrival, the school record for consecutive bowl game appearances was three from 1998-2000. MSU is currently on a stretch of a school-record seven straight bowl appearances with its most recent triumph coming against Miami (Ohio) in the 2016 St. Petersburg Bowl. No other coach has been to more bowl games (seven) or won more bowl games (five) at MSU than Mullen. The Bulldogs are one of five SEC teams to earn a bowl berth every season this decade, and MSU is second in the league in bowl game wins (five) since 2010. Only five teams have held the No. 1 ranking since the start of the 2014 season - Alabama, Clemson, Florida State, Ohio State and Mississippi State.

No coach in school history had ever been a finalist for a national coach of the year honor until Mullen won the Maxwell Football Club's National Coach of the Year award in 2014. He also claimed the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year award that same fall. On top of that, Mullen has shined in the Egg Bowl, owning a 5-3 record against Ole Miss. His five wins against the in-state rival ranks second in school history, while his .625 winning percentage against the Rebels is the best by an MSU coach since Sid Robinson's 4-0 mark from 1917-19 (minimum three years).

Furthermore, MSU's historic play has united a town and brought college football's epicenter to Starkville the past three years. Following a renovation and expansion completed in August 2014, Davis Wade Stadium has become one of college football's most difficult venues for an opposing team. Mullen has made winning at home a priority. The top 20 attended games in Davis Wade Stadium history have all occurred in the Mullen era. In 2015, the Bulldogs shattered the single-season total and average attendance records for the third straight year. The program also eclipsed over 50,000 in season ticket sales for the first time. Over 3 million fans have entered Davis Wade Stadium since Mullen took over prior to the 2009 season.

The MSU Years

MSU entered the 2016 season as one of the nation's youngest teams but the Bulldogs still managed to reach a seventh straight bowl game. On Nov. 5, MSU topped No. 4 Texas A&M in Davis Wade Stadium and was recognized as the Football Writers Association's "National Team of

BOSTON MARATHON MAN

Dan Mullen fulfilled a lifelong dream on April 18, 2016. Two days after coaching Mississippi State's spring football game, he completed the 120th Boston Marathon in 4:28:35. In the process, Mullen raised over $60,000 for his Mullen 36 Family Foundation with proceeds going to children's charities throughout Mississippi. Mullen, who grew up just over 50 miles from the finish line in Manchester, New Hampshire, raced 26.2 miles through the historic course and was greeted by Bulldog fans.

The 2014 season was arguably the best in school history as Mullen's group won 10 regular season games for the first time and 10 overall for just the third time. The Bulldogs claimed six SEC wins -- the most by MSU since 1999 -- while finishing second in the difficult SEC West.

Mullen developed a team that went from unranked to No. 1 quicker than any in college football history (five weeks; Ohio State made the move in six weeks in 1964). The Bulldogs entered Sept. 20 at No. 8 LSU just outside the polls. Following a dazzling display by Prescott, MSU recorded its first victory in Tiger Stadium since 1991.

The Bulldogs were the nation's No. 1 team for the first time in 80 years of Associated Press polls following wins over No. 6 Texas A&M and No. 2 Auburn during a raucous stretch in Davis Wade Stadium. MSU became the first team since 1983 Auburn to defeat three consecutive top-10 ranked teams. The Bulldogs also became the first squad to hold the No. 1 ranking in the inaugural College Football Playoff poll.

The year was capped with a berth in the Orange Bowl for the first time since 1941. Mullen's squad rewrote the MSU record books in 2014, shattering 22 single-season records, including 10 by National Player of the Year finalist Prescott. The Bulldogs led the SEC in total offense for the first time since 1982, putting up a school-record 513.8 yards per game. State earned its highest Associated Press poll finish since 1940 (No. 11), and it tied its highest finish ever in the USA Today Amway Coaches poll (No. 12). Prescott finished higher in the Heisman Trophy vote than any MSU player by taking eighth in December 2014.

In 2013, MSU showed constant improvement and went on an inspiring three-game winning streak to close the season despite a rash of injuries. After a hard-fought game against No. 1 Alabama on Nov. 16, the Bulldogs bounced back a week later with their first victory ever at Arkansas. Then on a cold Thanksgiving night, Mullen continued his Egg Bowl success as MSU, on a gutsy final drive engineered by an injured Prescott, claimed its fourth Egg Bowl win in five seasons with a 17-10 overtime triumph. The Bulldogs closed the year racking up 533 yards to defeat Rice 44-7 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The 37-point margin of victory was the largest of the 2013 college bowl season as MSU finished the year with a 7-6 record.

Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year, 2010, and then another successful season in 2011. The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories including posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win against Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

With the nation's toughest schedule in 2009, State's rushing attack, led by first-team All-SEC selection and former NFL running back Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the most since 2000 at the time.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory over MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining McKeen and Jackie Sherrill.

Player Development and "The Quarterback Whisperer"

Player development has been key in Mullen's eight previous seasons. Twenty-two Bulldogs have been chosen in the NFL Draft under Mullen's watch since 2010. What has proven to be even more impressive is how successful those players are when they reach the next level.

Prescott became the highest drafted MSU quarterback in modern NFL Draft history, going in the 2016 fourth round to the Dallas Cowboys. He joined a long line of Mullen developed signal callers to be selected in the NFL Draft: Josh Harris (Bowling Green), Omar Jacobs (Bowling Green), Alex Smith (Utah) and Tim Tebow (Florida).

Prescott captivated the nation in 2016, illustrating poise and skills of an eight-year NFL veteran as a rookie starting quarterback. The Mullen protégé set NFL rookie quarterback records for wins (13), passer rating (104.9), touchdown-to-interception ratio (23/4) and completion percentage (67.8). He was named NFL Rookie of the Year and became the first rookie quarterback in Cowboys history to be selected to the NFL Pro Bowl.

Said Prescott of his instant NFL success, "I give credit every chance I get to my college coach Dan Mullen for getting me prepared for the NFL mentally and teaching me the game of football. Not just teaching me spread offense, but teaching me defenses, teaching me all sorts of offenses so when I had the chance to put it on display here in the NFL that I knew a bunch of things. And I think that's something people may have missed in the draft, my knowledge of the game."

The 2016 NFL season saw a school-record three Bulldogs -- Prescott, Fletcher Cox and K.J. Wright -- reach the NFL Pro Bowl in Orlando. All three developed under Mullen at State. Prescott was the fifth SEC player to win NFL Rookie of the Year since its inception in 2002. Of the five winners, three have been coached by Mullen. Mullen mentored 2009 winner Percy Harvin at Florida as well as 2011 recipient Cam Newton for two seasons in Gainesville.

Pro Football Focus rated the top 10 NFL rookies for 2016 and two former Mullen players made the cut in Prescott and Kansas City Chiefs star Chris Jones. MSU and Ohio State were the only two programs to produce multiple rookies in the top 10.

In the last seven NFL Drafts, the Bulldogs have produced seven first- or second-round picks. In the eight drafts prior to Mullen's arrival, MSU did not have any.

The Bulldogs continue to rewrite the record books under Mullen. MSU has shattered 109 individual and team single-game, single-season and career statistical records under him. Meanwhile, the top seven total offensive seasons in school history have all occurred in the Mullen era.

The Florida Years

As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida for four seasons prior to MSU, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award-winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008 alone, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring – averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12-of-13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous Florida mark, set in 1996. Florida rushed for a school-record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally. Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 ranked ninth nationally in 2008 and was the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-SEC selections following the season in which Mullen helped UF claim its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns, second most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83-of-152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida additionally averaged 7.0 yards per play that year, the fourth-best total in the nation. Lastly, the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP First-Team All-American among other honors. He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, NFL Pro Bowler Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's then single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 yards per carry average placed second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington

Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors under Mullen's tutelage.

The Utah and Bowling Green Years

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with head coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed current NFL standout Alex Smith – the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft – from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist. Smith also garnered final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer.

Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and before that assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

Academic and Off the Field Success

Off the field, Mullen's players are constant achievers in the classroom and the community donating countless hours to the Starkville area and state of Mississippi. A school-record 31 Bulldogs were named to the 2016 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, which ranked among the top five in the league. During Mullen's entire tenure at MSU, 166 players have earned the distinction of SEC Honor Roll recipient.

State is tied for the SEC lead in number of National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes produced since 2010 with two. Mullen joined Taveze Calhoun in New York in December 2015 as the senior cornerback was chosen a finalist for the Campbell Trophy, the "Academic Heisman" considered the top academic award in all of college football.

MSU's NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) continues to shine and was a critical component to the Bulldogs' bowl berth in 2016. In May 2017, Mullen's program posted an NCAA APR of 974, representing the highest in school history and the fifth-best mark in the SEC. MSU's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) unveiled in the fall of 2016 exceeded the program's all-time high score and was above the national average.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, one son (Canon) and one daughter (Breelyn).

The Mullen's created the Mullen Family 36 Foundation, raising close to $500,000 for charity in the last five years. The foundation has impacted the lives of 36 different children's charities throughout the state of Mississippi and annually chooses a deserving student for a college scholarship. In the spring of 2017, the foundation hosted its first golf classic, bringing back former Bulldogs and celebrities that raised over $100,000 for children's charities.

Mullen crossed a bucket list item off in April 2016. Two days after coaching in the Bulldogs' spring game, he received a sponsorship exemption through Adidas to run the 120th Boston Marathon, which he completed in 4:28:35. In the process, the Mullen 36 Family Foundation raised over $60,000 through race donations. An avid runner who grew up just over 50 miles from the finish line in Manchester, New Hampshire, he ran 26.2 miles through the historic course with several MSU fans cheering him on.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Mullen was formally awarded with the Maxwell Football Club's National Coach of the Year honor in March 2015, becoming the first in MSU history.

DR. DAN MULLEN

In May 2017, Mullen received an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters after giving the commencement speech at his alma mater of Ursinus College.

MULLEN FAMILY 36 FOUNDATION

The Mullen Family 36 Foundation, which supports children's charities in Mississippi, has raised nearly $500,000 the last five years. The foundation held a golf classic in April 2017 and welcomed back several NFL Bulldogs, including Fletcher Cox and Dak Prescott.

"Right now, there's no head coach in college football who has a better quarterback resume than this guy. He was the offensive coordinator at Utah for Alex Smith — a QB playing at a high level for the Kansas City Chiefs. Tim Tebow — his next quarterback at Florida — won the Heisman Trophy. And now, at Mississippi State ... with Dak Prescott, and look how he's playing in the NFL."

- GARY DANIELSON, CBS

"I like offensive football and because of that, I have always been a fan of Dan Mullen. When I first saw Dan Mullen, he was the offensive coordinator at Utah coaching Alex Smith. They win the Fiesta Bowl. They go 12-0. He goes and gets Tim Tebow. He wins the Heisman Trophy at Florida. First round draft choices. And now Dak."

- JON GRUDEN, ESPN/FORMER NFL COACH

"He's taking two and three star recruits and turning them into some of the top players and athletes in all of college football. From a technique, coaching standpoint and the way he develops players, anybody can argue he's one of the better coaches. Overall, he's one of those guys that is just good for college football."

BRIAN BAKER

Defensive Line

Second season at MSU

@MSUCoachBaker

A 19-year NFL coaching veteran, Brian Baker begins his second season on the Mississippi State staff in charge of the defensive line in 2017. He owns over 30 years of coaching experience.

Baker's first season in Starkville saw his unit rank in the top five of the Southeastern Conference in tackles for loss (81). Three of his players signed NFL free agent contracts in May 2017, including Nelson Adams (Pittsburgh Steelers), Johnathan Calvin (Green Bay Packers) and Nick James (Detroit Lions).

Baker also mentored true freshman Jeffery Simmons into a Freshman All-SEC season. Simmons led all SEC freshmen in forced fumbles (two), and he finished with 40 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries. He ranked fifth among SEC freshmen in tackles. Simmons became the first Bulldog defensive lineman to earn the honor since current Kansas City Chiefs standout Chris Jones in 2013.

Baker has coached eight Pro Bowlers, including the likes of DeMarcus Ware and Julius Peppers. He spent the 2014 season with the Redskins as outside linebacker Ryan Kerrigan recorded a career-best 13.5 sacks under Baker's tutelage.

Prior to his year in Washington, he served as the Cleveland Browns' outside linebackers coach, helping the Browns finish third in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in total defense (332.4 yards per game).

Baker spent the 2011-12 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Dallas Cowboys. Under Baker, nose tackle Jay Ratliff earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2012. Baker also contributed to the Pro Bowl selections of linebackers DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer as part of his responsibilities overseeing the pass rush.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Baker spent two seasons as the Carolina Panthers' defensive line coach from 2009-10. In 2010, defensive end Charles Johnson led the Panthers with 11.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL. In 2009, defensive end Julius Peppers led the team with 10.5 sacks en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

Baker coached the St. Louis Rams' defensive line from 2006-08. In 2008, his unit notched 20 of the team's 30 sacks. In 2006, defensive end Leonard Little tied for fifth in the league with 13.0 sacks, while defensive tackle La'Roi Glover finished sixth among NFC defensive tackles with 5.5 sacks.

From 2001-05, Baker worked in various capacities for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive line coach in 2001 and 2004-05 and as linebackers coach from 2002-03. He helped defensive tackle Kevin Williams earn his first of six Pro Bowl selections following the 2004 season. That season, Williams recorded a career-best 11.5 sacks and was selected to the AP All-Pro team. Along with Williams, defensive end Lance Johnstone totaled 11 sacks in 2004 to give the Vikings the third-most prolific sack duo in the league that year with 22.5.

Baker was the Detroit Lions' defensive line coach from 1997-2000, spearheading defensive linemen Robert Porcher (1997 and 1999) and Luther Elliss (1999 and 2000) to Pro Bowl selections. In 1999, Porcher registered 15 sacks, the most by any Lion in a single-season since sacks became official in 1982.

Baker made his NFL coaching debut as the defensive line coach with the San Diego Chargers in 1996 after spending 12 years on the collegiate level. He had stints at Georgia Tech (1987-95), Army (1986) and Maryland (1984-85).

The highlight of his nine years as linebackers coach at Georgia Tech came in 1990. The Yellow Jackets claimed the 1990 National Championship as the nation's only unbeaten team with an 11-0-1 record. Tech defeated Nebraska 45-21 in the 1991 Citrus Bowl to complete the unbeaten season.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Baker played outside linebacker at the University of Maryland from 1980-83 and helped the Terps win the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1983. After his playing career, he helped coach outside linebackers as a student coach and graduate assistant from 1984-85 and earned a degree in marketing in 1985.

Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

TERRELL BUCKLEY

Cornerbacks/Recruiting Coordinator
Second season at MSU

@27TBuck

A Mississippian through and through, Terrell Buckley returned to his home state in 2016 as an assistant coach on Dan Mullen's Mississippi State staff. Buckley enters his second season as the Bulldogs' cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator.

Buckley, a 14-year NFL veteran and Super Bowl champion, was one of the most dynamic players in Mississippi history, guiding Pascagoula High School to a 1987 football state championship and undefeated season. He was inducted into the Pascagoula Athletic Hall of Fame in June 2015. He was born in Columbia, Miss., and spent most of his childhood in Gautier.

Buckley was instrumental in helping MSU haul in one of the nation's Top 25 recruiting classes in February 2017. Despite a rash of injuries in the secondary in 2016, the Bulldogs ranked in the top tier of the league in interceptions with 14. Buckley's squad closed the year on a two-game winning streak, shutting down Ole Miss and Miami (Ohio) to capture the Egg Bowl and St. Petersburg Bowl, respectively.

Buckley spent the 2014-15 seasons coaching cornerbacks at Louisville and helping the Cardinals to back-to-back bowl appearances, including a Music City Bowl victory over Texas A&M in December 2015. In both of Buckley's seasons, Louisville was tops in the Atlantic Coast Conference in interceptions and turnovers gained.

His two starting cornerbacks – Trumaine Johnson and Shaq Wiggins -- earned honorable mention All-ACC honors this season. Despite a young secondary in 2015, Louisville ranked 14th nationally in interceptions with 14. The Cardinals also led the league in turnovers gained (26, 20th nationally) and were second in the ACC in passes defended (66, 30th nationally).

In Buckley's first season of 2014, Louisville boasted one of the elite secondary's in all of college football. The Cardinals led the nation in interceptions with 26. As a unit, the squad ranked sixth nationally in total defense (308.5 ypg) and 11th nationally in turnovers gained (30). Buckley mentored corners Charles Gaines and Terrell Floyd, both of whom inked NFL contracts following their collegiate careers.

Prior to his stint at Louisville, Buckley was a member of Terry Bowden's staff at Akron, coaching corners from 2012-13. Two of Buckley's players – Micklos Blake and Bryce Cheek – earned academic honorable mention honors from the Mid-American Conference.

Buckley got his coaching start after earning his undergraduate degree from Florida State in 2007. From 2008-11, he served in various assistant roles on Bobby Bowden and Jimbo Fisher's staffs.

A two-year starter and three-year letterwinner as a cornerback and return specialist at FSU (1989-91), he was inducted into the school's sports hall of fame in 2003. He had his jersey No. 27 retired in 2011, and he is one of nine players in FSU history to earn that distinction.

Buckley left FSU as the program's all-time leader in interceptions (21) and interception return yards (501). He tied school records for touchdowns off interceptions (4) and punt returns (3). His interception return yardage still stands as an NCAA FBS record.

He earned consensus All-America honors as a junior in 1991 and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. That same season, he finished seventh in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Buckley was also a member of the Seminoles baseball team for two seasons (1990-91), playing outfield and second base, and was a sprinter on the outdoor track team (1991-92). He was picked fifth overall in the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and spent the next 14 seasons in the league on six different teams (1992-2005).

During his NFL career, Buckley amassed 50 interceptions. In 1996, Buckley led the league in interception return yards (164) and, as a rookie in 1992, set what remains a current record as the youngest player to return a punt for a touchdown (21 years, 105 days – Sept. 20, 1992, versus Cincinnati).

Buckley had at least one interception in 13 consecutive NFL seasons. As a member of the New England Patriots in the 2001 AFC Championship game, he tallied an interception in a 24-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Two weeks later, he added a championship ring to his collection when the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVI over the St. Louis

BRETT ELLIOTT

Quarterbacks

First season at MSU

 @coachelliottmsu

An outstanding quarterback in his own right for Dan Mullen, Brett Elliott now oversees the position and begins his first season as an assistant coach at Mississippi State.

Elliott is no stranger to Starkville after serving as an offensive graduate assistant (2012) and offensive quality control specialist (2013-14) for some of the most successful Bulldog teams in history. He played a critical role in the quarterback room, working closely with MSU legend Dak Prescott and current Bulldog quarterback Nick Fitzgerald in his true freshman season.

Elliott coached on the first team in MSU history to reach the No. 1 ranking, a spot it spent for five straight weeks in 2014. That squad reached its first Orange Bowl since 1941, set 22 school records and became the first Bulldog team to lead the SEC in total offense since 1982, putting up a school-record 513.8 yards per game.

Elliott returns to MSU after spending the 2016 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas State. Prior to his stint in San Marcos, he excelled as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at James Madison in 2015 when he coached the Colonial Athletic Association Offensive Player of the Year, Vad Lee.

Lee led the nation in total offense with 375.5 yards per game and completion percentage of 68.3 percent. He passed for 2,190 yards and 21 touchdowns and rushed for 814 yards and eight scores. Lee also became the only player in NCAA Division I history (FCS and FBS) to pass and run for 275 yards in the same game when he threw for 289 yards and rushed for 275 yards in James Madison's 48-45 victory over SMU on Sept. 26, 2015. He also earned the "Bill Dudley Award" for the second straight year as the top player in Virginia.

The Dukes had one of the top offenses in the nation in 2015 and ranked second in scoring and total offense with 44.3 points and 528.8 yards per game. The team led the FCS in third-down conversions with 54 percent, while ranking fourth in pass completion percentage with 66.9 percent, seventh in rushing with 273.8 yards per game and ninth in red-zone scoring with 89.4 percent. JMU also set a school record with 6,345 yards of total offense after rushing for 3,285 yards and passing for 3,060 yards.

Elliott played quarterback for two seasons at Utah, including the 2003 campaign under Mullen. After suffering a wrist injury, he transferred to Linfield College where he was named All-American twice and led the Wildcats to the 2004 NCAA Division III National Championship. He won the Gagliardi Trophy and Melberger Award in 2005, which is given to the top player in Division III.

After signing as a free agent with the San Diego Chargers, Elliott played for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe and was under contract with the San Jose Sabercats of the Arena League when the league halted operations in 2008. He also played in the Arena League and was a starter for the Utah Blaze in 2010 and Georgia Force in 2011.

A native of Lake Oswego, Ore., Elliott earned his degree from Linfield College in 2005.

RON ENGLISH

Safeties

First season at MSU

@CoachRonEnglish

Ron English, a veteran in the college coaching ranks and former head coach at Eastern Michigan, takes over as safeties coach for Mississippi State in 2017.

English has 20 years of experience at the FBS level, including stints as defensive coordinator at Michigan, Louisville and most recently, San Jose State. A two-time Broyles Award nominee and the 2006 National Defensive Coordinator of the Year, English has appeared in nine bowl games, including three Rose Bowls.

English comes to Starkville after serving the 2016 season as defensive coordinator at San Jose State. The Spartans ranked fourth in pass defense (188.6 ypg) in the Mountain West Conference, first in third-down conversion defense (37.6 percent), fifth in interceptions (10) and fourth in turnovers forced (19).

English spent five seasons as head coach at Eastern Michigan from 2009-13. In the last 30 years, he is one of only two EMU football coaches to be named a Mid-American Conference (MAC) Coach of the Year when he captured the honor in 2011. That squad finished with a 6-6 win-loss record, the most wins by the Eagles since 1995.

English spent the 2008 season as defensive coordinator at Louisville and prior to that was at Michigan from 2003-07 where he coached the defensive backs for his first three seasons and served as defensive coordinator in his final two seasons under legendary head coach Lloyd Carr.

In 2007, English oversaw an aggressive Michigan defense that was the nation's eighth-ranked pass defense and 17th in pass efficiency defense. The Wolverines were also 23rd in scoring defense and 24th in total defense.

English was named Rivals.com 2006 National Defensive Coordinator of the Year during his initial season at Michigan. That Wolverine defense rated among the nation's best, finishing first against the run, fourth in sacks, seventh in third-down defense, 10th in total defense and 15th in scoring defense.

The Michigan secondary collected 36 interceptions during his three seasons overseeing the entire corps and turned four of those picks into touchdowns. In addition, the Wolverines yielded just 37 touchdown passes by the opposition during that time, including an NCAA-leading nine in 2003.

English became the first coach in NCAA history to have two defensive backs earn consensus All-America honors in the same season, since the organization began incorporating both an offensive and defensive team in 1965. Cornerback Marlin Jackson and safety Ernest Shazor earned the recognition following the 2004 season. During his tenure on the Michigan staff he coached an All-Big Ten defensive back in every season and had two All-Conference selections in four of his five seasons.

English made an immediate impact on the Wolverine secondary during his first season as an assistant coach when Michigan tied for the national lead in fewest touchdown passes yielded with nine, and finished ninth in pass efficiency defense. The secondary collected 13 interceptions and returned two for scores.

English began his collegiate coaching career as the defensive backs coach at Mt. San Antonio College (1993) in Walnut, Calif., after coaching for one season at Ganesha High School (1992), his alma mater, in Pomona, Calif.

English also tutored the secondary for two seasons at San Diego State (1996-97) and served as the outside linebackers coach at Northern Arizona for the 1996 spring practice.

He then went on to spend five seasons (1998-2002) as an assistant football coach at Arizona State. He coached the secondary all five years with the Sun Devils, the final two years with the cornerbacks and the previous three seasons mentoring the safeties. He helped ASU to three bowl appearances: the 1999 and 2000 Aloha and 2002 Holiday bowls. His first stint at ASU was as a graduate assistant coach handling the defensive line during the 1994-95 seasons.

English was a four-year letterman (1987-90) and senior starter at safety for the California Golden Bears football squad. He also started on special teams all four seasons at Cal. English finished his career with 134 tackles and seven sacks and participated in the 1990 Copper Bowl against Wyoming. His identical twin brother, Don, also played for the Golden Bears.

BILLY GONZALES

Co-Offensive Coordinator/
Passing Game/Wide Receivers

Fifth season at MSU

@CoachBillyG

Records have fallen under the leadership of Billy Gonzales, who enters his fifth season on Dan Mullen's staff in charge of wide receivers. Gonzales also begins his fourth year as co-offensive coordinator overseeing the passing game.

Having coached nine combined seasons at Bowling Green, Utah and Florida with Mullen, Gonzales arrived in Starkville with 20 years of college coaching experience and an offensive mindset nearly identical to his boss. Gonzales' resume gleams greatness as he's coached in three BCS National Championship games with Florida and LSU during a six-year span.

The results have been impressive as the 46-year-old has produced arguably the greatest four-year wide receiver stretch in Mississippi State history. The Bulldogs have recorded 18 100-yard receiving games in the last four seasons, including a school record seven in 2015. Five times in his tenure MSU has accounted for multiple 100-yard receiving games in the same contest, something that had only been done five times in program history prior to his arrival.

In addition, the three highest team single-season receiving yard totals have all occurred on Gonzales' watch. Every individual single-season school receiving record has been broken under Gonzales. The Bulldogs shattered the school record for total receiving yards for the third straight year in 2015 with 4,113. With a young starting quarterback in 2016, they managed to put up the fifth-highest passing total in school history with 2,726 yards.

Gonzales' protégé, Fred Ross, could arguably go down as the greatest receiver in MSU history. Ross shattered six school records, including career marks for receptions (199), receiving yards (2,528), 100-yard receiving games (10) and consecutive games with a reception (35). Ross also became the first receiver in school history to earn first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors in back-to-back seasons.

Despite being a run-oriented offense for most of 2016, Ross still managed to top the SEC in receiving touchdowns (12), and he ranked second in catches (72) and first in 10+ yard catches (38). Ross' 199 catches ranked ninth in SEC career history. He became another of a long-line of Gonzales receivers to reach the NFL when the Carolina Panthers signed him in April 2017.

In 2015, Ross became the first MSU wideout to be selected first-team All-SEC since all-time great Eric Moulds did so in 1995. Fellow junior De'Runnya Wilson earned a spot on the second-team All-SEC.

That fall Ross obliterated the school record for catches in a season with 88, a mark that also ranked seventh in SEC single-season annals. Ross also became the second 1,000-yard receiver in school history and became the first Bulldog to lead the SEC in receptions per game (6.8) since 1978. His five 100-yard receiving games were a school record. No one was better in the difficult month of November as Ross caught a nation-leading 41 passes. Wilson, meanwhile, finished his career second in MSU touchdown catches with 22.

In his first season as co-offensive coordinator in 2014, Gonzales was an instrumental part of an offense that broke 15 MSU single-season team records, including total offensive yards (6,679), yards per play (6.7), per game offense (513.8 ypg), points (480), offensive touchdowns (60), receiving yards (3,649) and receiving touchdowns (31).

Part of the Bulldogs' 2014 success was demonstrated by Gonzales' development of depth at wide receiver. MSU led the nation in number of players with a receiving touchdown on the year (12), while 16 different players caught multiple passes. Wilson became a household name with 680 receiving yards and a nation-leading five touchdowns on third down.

MSU produced three 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time when Joe Morrow (6/117), Wilson (9/105) and Ross (6/102) achieved the feat in the Orange Bowl. It was the Bulldogs' first appearance in the game in 73 years, capping a season that saw the program reach No. 1 for the first time in school history.

Gonzales made an immediate impact in his first season in 2013 with the Bulldogs as junior wideout Jameon Lewis developed into one of the SEC's elite slot receivers. Lewis ranked sixth in the SEC in receiving yards per game (71.0). He capped the year with an MSU single-game school-record 220 receiving yards in an AutoZone Liberty Bowl victory over Rice.

Gonzales arrived in Starkville following a one-year stint as co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Illinois. Prior to coaching the Fighting Illini, Gonzales served as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at LSU. During his time in Baton Rouge, Gonzales helped the Tigers to the 2012 BCS National Championship game and the 2011 SEC Championship. His development of Odell Beckham Jr. and Reuben Randle were apparent during the Tigers' season, as he led them to Freshman All-SEC and first-team All-SEC accolades respectively. Beckham is now one of the NFL's elites.

Prior to his stint at LSU, Gonzales coached beside Mullen under Urban Meyer at Florida. During his time as wide receivers coach, the Gators' high-octane offense translated to two BCS national championships in 2006 and 2008.

At Florida, Gonzales saw seven players drafted under his command, with his crown jewel being a first-round selection of Percy Harvin in 2009. In addition, Gonzales produced seven All-SEC wide receivers in his five seasons.

During his two seasons at Utah as wide receivers coach and co-special teams coordinator, Gonzales saw the Utes to a 22-2 record and two bowl wins, including a 35-7 thrashing of Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl. The Utes' offense averaged 499.8 yards and 45.3 points per game, each ranking third in the country in their respective categories. Under Gonzales' watch, three Utah receivers were first-team All-Mountain West: tight end Ben Moa (2003), wide receiver Paris Warren (2003) and wide receiver Steve Savoy (2004).

As a special teams guru, Gonzales led Utah to 28.2 yards per kickoff return in 2003, which was good enough for the nation's lead. Utah was also third in the country in net punting yard (40.8) and fifth in kickoff returns during the 2004 season (26.2).

Gonzales spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons at Bowling Green, serving as wide receivers coach and co-recruiting coordinator. The Falcons were 17-6 in his two years at the school and in 2002, Bowling Green was third in the country in scoring averaging 48 points per game. The Falcon offense also averaged 448.9 yards per game during the 2002 season, ranking ninth in the country. Under Gonzales' direction, wide receiver Robert Redd was an All-MAC selection during the coaches' two years at the school and became the school's all-time leader in receptions.

Gonzales got his first full-time coaching position in Division I in 1997 when he accepted a job at Kent State. During his four-year coaching stint with the Golden Flashes, he coached running backs for his opening season followed by three years as the wide receivers coach. As running backs coach, he led Astron Whitley to three All-MAC selections. As wide receivers coach, Gonzales tutored Eugene Baker to a third-team All-America selection as he became the school's all-time leading receiver.

Prior to a full-time coaching job with the Golden Flashes, Gonzales spent two years as a graduate assistant at the school from 1995-96. He earned his master's degree from Kent State in sports administration.

Gonzales broke into the coaching profession in 1994 at MacMurray (Ill.) as wide receivers coach.

A four-year letterwinner at Colorado State including two years as starting wide receiver, Gonzales helped the Rams to a 9-4 record during the 1990 season and a win over Oregon in the Freedom Bowl.

Gonzales and his wife, Julie, have two children, Cole and Caylynn.

TODD GRANTHAM

Defensive Coordinator/
Linebackers

First season at MSU

@CoachTGrantham

Todd Grantham, one of the elite defensive minds in the country with over 25 years of combined experience at the college and NFL levels, brings a new attitude to the Mississippi State defense in 2017 as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Grantham arrived in Starkville in January 2017, installing a philosophy of fast, physical and aggressive during the Bulldogs' spring workouts. He also hit the ground running in MSU's recruiting efforts as the program hauled in a Top 25 signing class.

Grantham has spent 10 seasons as a defensive coordinator, including most recently at Louisville from 2014-16 where he molded the Cardinals into one of the top units nationally. His squads have ranked in the top-20 nationally in either scoring or total defense in five of his seven seasons as a college defensive coordinator, including all three years at Louisville.

Grantham's commitment to an aggressive and physical style was evident in Louisville's run defense, which finished top-15 nationally in all three of his seasons. The Cardinals were 12th against the run in 2016 (115.2 ypg), 14th in 2015 (120.2 ypg) and No. 10 in 2014 (108.9 ypg). They notably held All-American and Doak Walker Award finalist Dalvin Cook to only 54 yards on the ground in a 63-20 victory over Florida State on Sept. 17, 2016. From 2012-16, Louisville ranked second nationally in yards per carry defense (3.3) behind only Alabama (2.6).

Grantham's unit finished No. 14 nationally in total defense in 2016 (322.2 ypg), No. 18 in 2015 (332.8 ypg) and No. 6 in 2014 (308.5). His 2014 squad led the nation in interceptions with 26, while the Cardinals posted a three-year total of 58, which was tops nationally during that span.

Grantham, a native of Pulaski, Va., saw eight players drafted into the NFL during his tenure at Louisville, including safety Josh Harvey-Clemons to the Washington Redskins in 2017. He tutored Devonte' Fields, who led the country in tackles for loss per game (1.73) in 2015 and was voted first-team All-ACC in 2016.

Grantham developed outside linebacker Lorenzo Mauldin into a first-team All-ACC selection in 2014 and a third round 2015 NFL Draft selection of the New York Jets. The Cardinals' other starting linebacker that season, Deiontrez Mount, was a sixth-round pick of the Tennessee Titans.

Grantham joined the Louisville staff after four seasons as Georgia's defensive coordinator (2010-13), including two seasons as the associate head coach under Mark Richt. During his time with Georgia, the Bulldogs advanced to four consecutive bowl games and compiled a 36-18-1 record with Grantham at the helm of the defense.

The 2012 season saw the Bulldogs finish with a 12-2 record, which included a loss to Alabama, the eventual national champion, in the SEC Championship Game. Georgia, champions of the Capital One Bowl, ended the campaign 18th in the country in scoring defense (19.6 ppg), holding five opponents to 10 or fewer points, and eighth nationally in pass defense (175.6 ypg).

In his second season at Georgia in 2011, the defense showed a dramatic jump in the national statistics. The group finished the year fifth nationally in total defense (277.2 ypg; 11th versus rushing, 10th versus passing), third in third-down defense (28.9 percent), fifth in interceptions (20), and seventh in turnovers gained (32), which ranked first in the SEC.

Grantham's impressive resume includes an 11-year NFL career, lastly as the Dallas Cowboys defensive line coach.

He was with the Cowboys for two years after spending three seasons as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns (2005-07), and six years as defensive line coach for both the Houston Texans (2002-04) and Indianapolis Colts (1999-01). He helped the Browns to a 10-win season in 2007.

The Cowboys' defensive unit was one of the best in the league, ranking second in scoring defense (15.6 ppg), fourth in rushing defense (90.5 ypg), seventh in sacks (42), and ninth in total defense (315.9 ypg). Dallas finished eighth in the NFL in total defense in 2008 and led the league with 59 sacks.

In addition, Dallas nose guard Jay Ratliff, a sixth round draft choice, was named to consecutive Pro Bowls under Grantham and All-Pro Demarcus Ware recorded a career-high 20 sacks in 2008.

JOHN HEVESY

Co-Offensive Coordinator/
Running Game/Offensive Line

 @CoachHevesy

The results put up by John Hevesy's group during his eight years as the Bulldogs' run game coordinator and offensive line coach have been impressive. In 2014, Hevesy took over co-offensive coordinator duties in addition to overseeing the offensive line and what resulted was the most prolific offense in Mississippi State history.

Since the 2013 season, five of Hevesy's protégés have reached the NFL. Justin Senior became the latest when the Seattle Seahawks selected the offensive tackle in the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft. Senior, a native of Montreal, Quebec, was the lone Canadian picked in the 2017 draft.

Three of Hevesy's former linemen were on NFL rosters during the 2016 season, including Gabe Jackson (Oakland Raiders), Dillon Day (Denver Broncos) and Blaine Clausell (Carolina Panthers). Jackson has developed into one of the top guards in the league and earned the NFL's highest performance-based bonus for a veteran player in 2016. He played all but one offensive snap during his third NFL season.

MSU has produced two Kent Hull Trophy winners since 2013, an award that recognizes the top offensive lineman in the state of Mississippi. Senior won it in 2016, while Jackson was the inaugural recipient following the 2013 season. In addition, Hevesy's guidance has produced a first-team All-SEC offensive lineman for MSU in four out of the last seven years.

The top seven single-season total offensive yard marks have all been set in Hevesy's tenure on staff, including the third-best mark during the 2016 season (5,723 yards). Despite a rash of injuries on the offensive line, the Bulldogs proved to be one of the dominant rushing units in the Southeastern Conference. MSU racked up 2,997 rushing yards, representing the third-highest total in single-season school history. The Bulldogs allowed the second-fewest sacks in the conference (18). Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald and running back Aeris Williams became one of the top tandems in the nation, while Senior and blossoming junior tackle Martin Rankin paved the way.

Rankin was recognized as the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following the Bulldogs' blowout of No. 4 Texas A&M on Nov. 5, in which the squad racked up 365 rushing yards. MSU did not allow a sack against an Aggie defensive line that featured the No. 1 pick in the 2017 NFL Draft. It was the most rushing yards allowed by a John Chavis defense since 2010. Rankin heads into the 2017 campaign as one of the top prospects for the 2018 NFL Draft.

MSU closed the regular season in dramatic fashion, setting a school record for rushing yards in an SEC game with 465 in a 55-20 Egg Bowl victory in Oxford. The Bulldogs averaged an astounding 9.72 yards per carry, which ranked third all-time in SEC history in conference games. It was the first time in MSU annals that the program produced a 200-yard rusher (Fitzgerald) and a 100-yard rusher (Williams) in the same game.

The 2015 campaign saw the Bulldogs reach a bowl for a sixth straight year and cap a nine-win season with a 51-28 blowout of NC State in the Belk Bowl. It marked the first time in school history that MSU produced back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories. The Bulldogs ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in total offense, putting up 460.5 yards per game, a mark that also ranked among the top 30 nationally.

The Bulldogs celebrated their first 10-win regular season in program history in 2014 while reaching the Orange Bowl for the first time since 1941. During the season, the Maroon and White reached No. 1 in the polls for the first time and were atop the inaugural College Football Playoff rankings. MSU's offense shattered 15 single-season team records, including total offense (6,679), points (480), touchdowns (60) and first downs (334).

The Bulldogs also were among the nation's top 25 teams in fewest tackles for loss allowed in 2014. MSU led the SEC in total offense for the first time since 1982, putting up a school-record 513.8 yards per game. That figure ranked eighth nationally. Auburn was the next closest with 485.0 yards per contest. The Bulldogs were also third in the league in rushing offense, tallying over 233 yards per game on the ground.

Senior Ben Beckwith recorded the fourth All-America honor in five years for an MSU offensive lineman after a tremendous 2014 campaign. Under Hevesy's tutelage, Beckwith went from walk-on to first-team All-SEC in his final season, while also being the program's first finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy. Beckwith became the league's only three-time SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week in 2014. He showed his versatility by playing multiple positions on the line at times during the year.

In 2013, Gabe Jackson, a once three-star high school recruit, became a first-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC recipient. He was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

In his first two seasons, Hevesy tutored left tackle Derek Sherrod, an All-American selection and a first round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. Sherrod spent four seasons in the NFL.

Hevesy has worked with head coach Dan Mullen for over a decade and came to MSU after four years as a member of the University of Florida coaching staff, where he spent time working with both the tight ends and the offensive line.

Hevesy coached in four BCS bowls prior to MSU, including Florida's 2006 and 2008 BCS title game victories. Hevesy assisted with a Florida offensive line which allowed only 16.0 sacks in 14 games and paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged more than 231 yards per game.

In 2007, he tutored future NFL tight end Cornelius Ingram. Ingram's seven touchdowns receiving matched Andre Caldwell's team-leading total and his 14.9 years per reception were the most of any Gator who had double-digit catches. That season, the Gator offensive line surrendered just 13.0 sacks in 13 games, tying for the second-lowest total in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Despite entering the 2006 season with one player having started a game at his opening-day position, the UF offensive line allowed only 23 sacks on the year, and yielded one-or-less sacks seven times during the campaign. Hevesy showed a penchant for molding individual talents on the interior of the Gators' line. Starting centers Mike Degory and Steve Rissler earned first-team All-SEC honors as seniors, and Drew Miller earned honorable mention All-SEC.

As the offensive line coach at Utah in 2004, Hevesy directed the front line for one of the most prolific offenses in the country, as the Utes ranked third nationally in scoring, total offense and passing efficiency. Behind the blocking of Hevesy's group, Utah scored on 62-of-67 trips to the red zone en route to an undefeated season and a victory in a BCS bowl game.

Prior to his arrival in Salt Lake City, Hevesy coached the tackles and tight ends at Bowling Green from 2001-02. In his first year on campus, the line allowed 50 percent fewer sacks than the year before, while the 2002 unit blocked for skill players that amassed more than 5,000 yards of total offense.

During a three-year stint at Brown from 1998-2000, Hevesy coached an offensive line that blocked for 13 school records and saw three of its members earn multiple All-Ivy selections.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at the University of Maine from 1991-93, Hevesy is married to the former Kelli Rogers. The couple has three children -- Jack, Taylor and Madison.

GREG KNOX

Running Backs/
Special Teams Coordinator
Ninth season at MSU

@CoachKnox_MSU

With a hotbed of talent to coach at running back, Greg Knox has molded raw backs into All-Southeastern Conference talent and pros, coaching four starting running backs to the NFL.

Knox, who has over 20 years of SEC coaching experience, added a new title to his resume in the spring of 2014 as special teams coordinator. He enters his ninth season on Dan Mullen's staff after producing a 1,000-yard rusher in four out of the last eight years. All four of those backs reached the NFL.

Knox' latest success story became West Point native Aeris Williams. Williams emerged as one of the top running backs in the SEC late in 2016, rushing for over 100 yards twice. The sophomore averaged 112.5 yards per game on the ground in the last four regular season games of the year, including a spectacular 191-yard, two-touchdown performance in a 55-20 triumph over Ole Miss.

In 2015, Knox worked with junior Brandon Holloway, who was one of only three FBS players to record at least 400 rushing yards, 300 receiving yards and 500 kick return yards. Holloway cracked the MSU single-season top 10 for kickoff return yards with 567, including a school-record-tying 100-yarder in the season-opener at Southern Miss.

Josh Robinson, a once three-star high school recruit, was another Knox protégé. In 2014, Robinson earned second-team All-SEC honors and ranked third in the SEC in rushing yards. His 1,203 yards on the ground ranked third in school history while his 11 rushing scores tied for ninth in MSU annals. Robinson's 1,573 all-purpose yards ended up second in school history.

Knox helped Robinson -- in his first season as a starter -- develop into one of the league's most dazzling playmakers and one of the nation's toughest after-contact runners. The Bulldogs' ground attack catapulted the program to just its third 10-win season in school history, its first-ever No. 1 national ranking and its first appearance in the Orange Bowl in 73 years.

In May 2014, Robinson became the third MSU running back to be taken in the NFL Draft since 2010 when the Indianapolis Colts called his number in the sixth round with pick No. 205.

In 2013, LaDarius Perkins capped his career as the fifth-leading rusher in school history with 2,554 career yards. With Knox's help in 2012, Perkins finished the regular season fourth in the SEC in rushing and second in the league in all-purpose yards. Through the first half of the 2012 campaign, Perkins was one of only two players nationally with a rushing touchdown through his first seven games.

Knox also mentored Anthony Dixon, the former NFL standout, during his senior season. Dixon rushed for a school-record 1,391 yards and found the end zone 12 times. But it wasn't only the All-SEC tailback who thrived under Knox's guidance, as the running backs combined for more than 2,000 yards as the Bulldogs led the conference in rushing yards.

Knox's second season may have been an even greater coaching feat. Without a proven commodity like Dixon, the Bulldog offense used several different backs to accomplish nearly the same thing. Vick Ballard burst onto the scene and broke the 58-year-old school record for rushing touchdowns in a single season (19). Knox continued to coach Ballard for his senior season in 2011, when Ballard rewrote the school record book for running backs and went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Knox came to Mississippi State following a 14-year stretch as Tommy Tuberville's wide receivers coach at both Ole Miss and Auburn. Knox was also the recruiting coordinator for the last 13 of those seasons.

A veteran of 15 postseason bowl games, Knox helped lead the Auburn offense to the top of the SEC in scoring in both 2004 and 2005.

He helped Ole Miss reach the 1997 Motor City Bowl, and was part of Auburn coaching staffs that finished football seasons in the 2001 Citrus and Peach Bowls, 2003 Capital One and Music City Bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl, the 2006 Capital One Bowl, and the 2007 Cotton and Chick-fil-A Bowls.

Of the eight players he has had selected in the NFL Draft, three came in just two years while at Auburn (Courtney Taylor in 2007, and Ben Obomanu and Devin Aromashodu in 2006). Knox helped Taylor become the school's all-time leader in receptions, and Obomanu finished second in touchdown receptions.

D.J. LOONEY

Tight Ends

First Season at MSU

 @CoachDJLooney

Former Mississippi State offensive lineman D.J. Looney returns to his alma mater to serve as tight ends coach in 2017.

Looney spent the 2016 season serving as an offensive graduate assistant at Georgia on Kirby Smart's squad that reached the Liberty Bowl.

Prior to that, Looney held the position of tackles and tight ends coach at Central Arkansas for two seasons (2014-15). The Bears went 7-2 in 2015 in the Southland Conference, finishing tied for second in the league.

Looney was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at East Mississippi Community College where his team won a national championship in his second and final season in 2013. He spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons in that role. The Birmingham, Ala., native played a key role in helping guide the Lions' potent offensive unit to a No. 8 NJCAA team statistical national ranking in rushing offense in 2012 (239.1 ypg) and No. 8 in 2013 (253.5 ypg).

Looney developed current Jacksonville Jaguar Avery Gennesy into an NJCAA first-team All-American in 2013. That year, EMCC put up a nation-leading 62.2 points per game, which included 45 rushing scores.

Looney got his coaching start as an offensive graduate assistant on Mullen's staff in 2011 that won the Music City Bowl. The former three-year Bulldog letterman worked with the Bulldogs' offensive linemen and quarterbacks in addition to assisting with MSU's special teams.

During his undergraduate days at MSU, Looney was associated with two bowl-game winning teams as an offensive lineman. As a redshirt freshman, the 2007 Bulldogs claimed a 10-3 Liberty Bowl victory over UCF. He was on Mullen's 2010 State squad that earned a 52-14 Gator Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Looney was just as active off the field as a collegian, serving three years as an SEC Student Advisory Council Representative. After serving as vice president of MSU's Campus Student Advisory Council in 2008, he was elevated to the president's position the following year. Looney was also a three-year member of the NCAA Football Issues Committee.

Looney earned his degree from Mississippi State in arts and sciences in 2010.

NICK SAVAGE

Head Strength Coach
Fourth season at MSU, second in head role

In 2017, Nick Savage enters his fourth season on the Mississippi football staff and second spearheading the Bulldogs' strength and conditioning efforts.

Savage has played a key role during one of the most successful three-year stretches in MSU history, a period in which the Bulldogs rank second in the SEC West in victories since 2014. He's been to a bowl game every year on staff and developed the squad into one of the nation's fittest and most physical.

The 2016 season was Savage's first in the head role as MSU posted 14 school statistical records and won its second straight bowl game, a 17-16 victory over Miami (Ohio) in the St. Petersburg Bowl in December.

Savage spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons as the assistant strength coach and earned rave reviews from the players and staff. Said head coach Dan Mullen at the time of his hiring, "he brings an infectious personality, energy and a purpose to our facility every day."

Savage was the interim head strength coach during December 2015 as MSU prepared for the Belk Bowl following the departure of Rick Court to Maryland. The Bulldogs defeated NC State 51-28 in Charlotte a few weeks later and never trailed, jumping out to a 14-0 lead after the first quarter.

Savage has worked exclusively with football since he joined Court's MSU staff in May 2014. He was a part of the first back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories in program history.

The 28-year-old has gained experience at four different FBS programs since January 2013. He interned at Bowling Green from January 2013-May 2013 and then at Ohio State from May 2013-January 2014. Savage worked with Court and renowned strength coach Mickey Marotti with the Buckeyes.

Savage served as a graduate assistant at Toledo for five months before arriving in Starkville. He was instrumental in developing the Bulldogs into one of the nation's fittest teams while serving as an assistant during the 2014 campaign that saw MSU spend five weeks atop the polls and earn its highest Associated Press poll finish since 1940 (No. 11).

The Youngstown, Ohio, native earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Youngstown State in 2013. He completed his master's degree from Toledo in recreation administration in 2016. Savage attended Boardman High School in Youngstown.

He and his wife, Gianna, reside in Starkville.

JON CLARK

Assistant Athletic Director/Football Operations

Eighth season at MSU

Jon Clark, a veteran of 14 years in work surrounding football operations, came to Mississippi State after five seasons at the University of Florida, where he served as the director of football administration. Clark enters his eighth season with the Bulldog program working alongside head coach Dan Mullen. Clark serves as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations.

Clark oversees the administrative operations of the football department, including daily scheduling, budget, travel, office staff and other duties. Clark oversaw the development and construction of the Leo Seal Complex, a $25 million football training and office facility that was opened in the spring of 2013. Clark has played a role in the re-design of the new football practice fields and other facility projects as it relates to the football program.

Prior to his stint at Florida, Clark served in the same role at the University of Utah in 2002 and 2003. He first worked with current Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer at Bowling Green where Clark was an undergraduate student manager prior to earning his bachelor's degree in secondary education in May of 2002. After completing his education, Clark accepted a position as an administrative graduate assistant at BGSU.

Clark is married to the former Caitlin Redlich, and the two have one son, Cooper Hill Clark.

BRAD PETERSON

Director of High School
Relations and Recruiting

Second season at MSU

Brad Peterson, one of the most successful and respected high school coaches in the state of Mississippi, enters his second season as Mississippi State's director of high school relations and recruiting.

Peterson, 42, returned to his alma mater after compiling a 148-70-1 record in 17 years as a high school coach. A two-time Mississippi Association of Coaches Class 3A Coach of the Year and the 2012 Class 6A Coach of the Year, Peterson has drastically improved each program he oversaw.

Among Peterson's primary responsibilities at MSU, he organizes on-campus recruiting efforts and serves as the director of all camps and clinics within the program.

Peterson spent 2015 as the head football coach and athletic director at Madison Central, guiding the Jaguars to an appearance in the MHSAA Class 6A semifinals and increasing attendance. A year prior to his arrival, Madison Central failed to make the playoffs.

From 2010-14, Peterson was instrumental in establishing Brandon High School as one of the state's premier programs. He compiled a 50-18 record, including three straight 10-win seasons from 2012-14. Brandon had its best season ever under Peterson's leadership, reaching the Class 6A state championship game in 2012 and posting a 12-3 record. Peterson also served as the school's athletic director during his tenure.

A native of Louisville, Mississippi, Peterson took over at Louisville High School in 2005 as athletic director and head coach. He revamped the program and led the Wildcats to back-to-back state championships in 2007 and 2008. During his tenure from 2005-09, he was twice named Class 3A Coach of the Year.

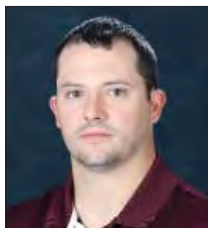

Prior to his stint at Louisville, Peterson served as the athletic director and head football coach at Forest High School from 2003-04. He inherited a program that was 6-16 in the two previous seasons, and in his two years, the Bearcats combined for a 21-4-1 record, including five straight weeks ranked No. 1 in the Class 3A polls in 2004.

Peterson got his head coaching start at Newton High School. He was named the school's athletic director and head football coach in 2003. He made an immediate impact, improving facilities and establishing golf and softball teams. On the gridiron, Newton claimed region championships in his final two seasons of 2002 and 2003.

Peterson is no stranger Starkville. He earned his undergraduate degree in physical education from Mississippi State in 1996 and later received a master's degree in sports administration in 2000.

Peterson has held many distinguished roles in his career, serving as football chairman of the Mississippi Association of Coaches from 2010-13 and twice coaching in the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Game. In 2004, he represented the state at the NFL's Youth Football Summit.

He and his wife, Lindley, have three children – Lauren (22), Cal (8) and Brett (3).

BULLDOGS DOMINATE 2016 EGG BOWL

MSU closed the 2016 regular season in an explosive way with a 55-20 victory over rival Ole Miss in Oxford. The Bulldogs set the following school records in the contest:

Individual Rushing Yards – Nick Fitzgerald (258), broke Anthony Dixon's record of 252 vs. Kentucky, 2009

Individual Yards Per Rush (min. 10 carries) – Nick Fitzgerald (18.4), broke Vick Ballard's record of 16.6 vs. Memphis, 2011

Team Rushing Yards in an SEC game – 457, broke old mark of 426 vs. Kentucky, 1991 ... Also the fourth-most rushing yards by MSU in any game, most since 464 vs. Arkansas State in 1992

Average Yards Per Rush – 9.7, broke old mark of 8.9 vs. Union on Oct. 25, 1941

Other notables:

- It was the first time in school history that MSU produced a 200-yard rusher (Nick Fitzgerald) and a 100-yard rusher in the same game (Aeris Williams).
- It was the largest margin of victory in an Egg Bowl for MSU since 36-0 on Nov. 3, 1916.
- The 55 points were the most by any team in the Egg Bowl since MSU scored 65 on Nov. 6, 1915.
- Nick Fitzgerald's 18.4 yards per carry was the highest by any SEC player in a conference game in league history and second-most in any game (LSU RB Harvey Williams 19.6 vs. Rice, 1987; min. 10 carries).
- Nick Fitzgerald's 258 rushing yards were the most by an FBS quarterback since Navy's Keenan Reynolds had 277 on Nov. 15, 2014 vs. Georgia Southern.
- The 9.72 yards per rush as a team were third all-time in conference games in SEC history:
 1. 9.90 - Texas A&M vs. Arkansas (2016)
 2. 9.73 - Auburn vs. Vanderbilt (1979)
 3. 9.72 - Mississippi State vs. Ole Miss (2016)

ST. PETERSBURG BOWL CHAMPIONS

The Bulldogs finished the year with a 6-7 record after winning its second straight bowl game when they defeated Miami (Ohio), 17-16, in the St. Petersburg Bowl on Dec. 26 at Tropicana Field. It was the 20th all-time bowl appearance for MSU as well as its school-record seventh straight. The Bulldogs qualified for a bowl with a 971 NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR), which was 12 points above the national average. For head coach Dan Mullen, it was his school-record fifth bowl victory. MSU became the first SEC team to play in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

2016 SENIOR CLASS LEAVES LEGACY

A group of 16 seniors left their legacy as one of the winningest senior classes in MSU history. They included: DL Nelson Adams, LB Richie Brown, DL Johnathan Calvin, OL Jamaal Clayborn, DB Kivon Coman, DL Will Coleman, DL Torrey Dale, OL Devon Desper, RB Brandon Holloway, DL Nick James, DL A.J. Jefferson, OL Jocquell Johnson, WR Fred Ross, OL Justin Senior, RB Ashton Shumpert and LB DeAndre Ward.

- The class owned a 32-20 (.615) record and tied for fourth among MSU senior classes in victories.
- Reached a bowl game every year of their careers.
- Spent a school-record 10 weeks ranked in the Top 10 and five straight weeks ranked No. 1 as sophomores in 2014.
- Owned a 19-8 record at home in Davis Wade Stadium.

FRED ROSS EARNS FIRST-TEAM ALL-SEC HONORS AGAIN

Senior Fred Ross became the first wide receiver in school history to earn first-team All-SEC honors in back-to-back seasons. He was only the second MSU wide receiver to earn multiple first-team All-SEC accolades in a career. Mardye McDole was a first-team All-SEC recipient in 1978 and 1980. Ross earned first-team honors from the Associated Press in 2016, and he was first team by the league's coaches last season.

MSU FWAA NATIONAL TEAM OF THE WEEK

MSU was the recipient of the Football Writers Association of America's National Team of the Week following its 35-28 victory over No. 4 Texas A&M on Nov. 5. It was the first time the Bulldogs earned the honor since an also unranked MSU team beat No. 8 LSU on Sept. 20, 2014 in Baton Rouge.

- It was MSU's first victory over a Top 10 team since beating No. 2 Auburn, 38-23, on Oct. 11, 2014 in Starkville in a game that propelled the Bulldogs to the No. 1 ranking. It was also the fourth Top 10 win for MSU in the Dan Mullen era.

- It was the ninth time that an unranked MSU team took down a Top 10 team: No. 8 LSU (2014), No. 3 Florida (2000), No. 9 Arkansas (1998), No. 8 Alabama (1996), No. 8 Tennessee (1986), No. 9 LSU (1984), No. 6 LSU (1982) and No. 1 Alabama (1980).

MULLEN EARNS DODD TROPHY NATIONAL COACH OF THE WEEK

In addition to being named National Team of the Week, MSU head coach Dan Mullen was the recipient of the Bobby Dodd Trophy's National Coach of the Week with the victory over No. 4 Texas A&M. Mullen recorded his fourth win over a Top 10 team in the past three seasons.

FITZGERALD LED NATION IN 300 PASS/100 RUSH GAMES

After following in the footsteps of the greatest quarterback in school history in Dak Prescott, sophomore QB Nick Fitzgerald was spectacular in the second half of the season. He led the nation in 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing games in 2016:

- To put in perspective: Prior to this season, only once in the 116-year history of MSU football had a 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing game occurred when Dak Prescott did it against Kentucky (348 pass, 117 rush) on Oct. 24, 2015. Fitzgerald did it three times as a sophomore in his first year as a starter.
- Fitzgerald's 300/100 games occurred: vs. Arkansas (328/131), vs. Samford (417/119) and at UMass (305/110).
- Fitzgerald was the first SEC quarterback to produce three 300/100 games in a season since Johnny Manziel did it in his Heisman Trophy campaign of 2012. Cam Newton never achieved the feat and Tim Tebow, another Dan Mullen protege, only did it once.
- Five times in Dan Mullen's tenure as a head coach and assistant coach has there been a 300/100 game.

MSU FIFTH IN SEC WEST, FINISHES AHEAD OF MEDIA POLL PROJECTIONS AGAIN

For the fifth straight year, MSU finished ahead of where they were projected by the media poll at SEC Media Days in July. The Bulldogs were picked to finish last in the SEC West and ended up in a tie for fifth. It was the sixth time in eight years under Dan Mullen that MSU finished ahead of where they were projected.

SEC West	SEC	Overall
Alabama	8-0	13-0
Auburn	5-3	8-4
LSU	5-3	7-4
Texas A&M	4-4	8-4

South Alabama Rally Stuns MSU, 21-20

Trailing 17-0 entering the second half, South Alabama rallied with 21 points culminating on a Gerald Everett 4-yard touchdown from Dallas Davis with 0:57 remaining as the Jags stunned Mississippi State, 21-20, in the season-opener. The Bulldogs had a chance for the win in the final seconds as Damian Williams engineered a 54-yard drive in the final minute to set up a 28-yard Westin Graves field goal. Graves' attempt with 0:06 remaining bounced off the left upright. MSU looked to be on its way early. Dedrick Thomas caught his first career TD pass on a 4-yard strike from Williams, who entered the game on the third series. Brandon Holloway added a 7-yard TD run to culminate a 6-play, 80-yard drive and Graves tacked on a 37-yard field goal to give the Bulldogs a 17-0 lead at the half. MSU led 20-7 entering the fourth quarter and was previously 50-1 when entering the final frame under Dan Mullen. Graves missed a 46-yarder early in the fourth quarter with the Bulldogs leading 20-14 and Davis marched the Jags 71 yards down the field for the final margin. MSU as a team racked up 11 tackles for loss, including a career-best four from A.J. Jefferson. Jefferson had two sacks. Leo Lewis, in his first career game, was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with nine, including two tackles for loss.

MSU Strikes Early, Often in 27-14 Win Over SC

Nick Fitzgerald set a then school record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 195, while throwing for two scores as Mississippi State responded with a 27-14 win over South Carolina in its SEC opener. Fitzgerald, making just his second career start, broke the old mark of John Bond (1980, 163 vs. Ole Miss) highlighted by a 74-yard run on the second series. Fitzgerald marched the Bulldogs down the field on a 55-yard drive at the start that culminated with a 6-yard touchdown pass to Fred Ross. Ross got into the throwing act of his own, tossing a 17-yard TD pass to Donald Gray on a trick play with 12:15 to play in the second quarter. True freshman Jordan Thomas caught his first career pass - a 3-yard TD toss from Fitzgerald -- that increased the lead to 21-0. The teams then had to wait out a 63-minute lightning delay at halftime before returning to the field. The Bulldog defense limited the Gamecocks to 34 yards rushing and the first-half deficit proved to be too much. Richie Brown collected a game-high 10 tackles, one sack and two tackles for loss. A.J. Jefferson added two tackles for loss and one sack. MSU created negative plays the entire game, accumulating 11 tackles for loss. Freshman Jeffery Simmons made his presence known in his debut with 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble. Jamal Peters recorded his first career interception.

MSU Rally Falls Short at No. 20 LSU, 23-20

Mississippi State nearly rallied from a 23-6 fourth-quarter deficit in its first road game of the season, but the Bulldogs came up short on a potential game-winning drive, falling to No. 20 LSU 23-20 in Tiger Stadium. MSU took advantage of a Leonard Fournette fumble with 6:50 to play in the game, marching 66 yards on nine plays that culminated with a Damian Williams 1-yard touchdown run. Williams, who entered the game late after Nick Fitzgerald's helmet came off on a hit, found Fred Ross for a 27-yard completion that kept the drive alive. On the ensuing kickoff, Westin Graves' perfectly placed onside kick was recovered by Dez Harris. The Williams-to-Ross connection did it again as the two had a 25-yard completion followed by a 7-yard TD reception from Ross in which he dove inside the pylon with 3:30 to play. State cut the deficit to 23-20. The MSU defense then forced a three-and-out, but a 61-yard punt bailed the Tigers out. Williams and the offense took over at their own 22, and he turned it over on a fourth-down fumble deep in their own territory. Fitzgerald made the first road start of his career. Freshman Leo Lewis collected a game-high 10 tackles. Harris, in addition to recovering the onside kick, forced two fumbles of the Heisman Trophy candidate Fournette. State was held to 56 yards rushing and 270 total yards of offense. J.T. Gray had 1.5 tackles for loss.

Second-Half Surge Propels MSU Past UMass, 47-35

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 415 yards of total offense and three touchdowns as MSU used a second-half offensive surge to beat UMass, 47-35, in Gillette Stadium, the home of the New England Patriots. It was the Bulldogs' first contest in the Northeast since 1986 and a homecoming for head coach Dan Mullen, who grew up in nearby Manchester, N.H. MSU trailed 14-6 with less than two minutes remaining in the first half before finding a rhythm. Fitzgerald led the Bulldogs 65 yards in 80 seconds, hitting Fred Ross for a 9-yard touchdown to make it a one-point game at the half. In the third quarter, the two connected for a 46-yard touchdown before UMass scored to retake the lead. Then the Bulldogs scored two touchdowns just 17 seconds apart, on Aeris Williams' 16-yard run and another on the next play from scrimmage when Jamoral Graham returned an interception 38 yards for a score. It was his first career pick. UMass made it interesting early in the fourth quarter but Ashton Shumpert put the game away on a 12-yard score. Fitzgerald finished with just the second 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing game in school history. Brandon Bryant and Johnathan Calvin had a team-high nine tackles. Calvin also recorded his first career interception and had two tackles for loss. Ross finished with his first 100-yard receiving game of the year.

Dominant First Half Carries Auburn Past MSU, 38-14

Auburn used a 35-point first half to snap a two-game losing streak to Mississippi State by a score of 38-14 in Davis Wade Stadium. Kivon Coman intercepted Sean White on the third play of the game but the Bulldogs were unable to capitalize, missing a field goal. White then directed three straight scoring drives all of which were finished on Kamryn Pettway runs. Montravius Adams made it 35-0 Auburn right before the half on a 13-yard fumble recovery after Nick Fitzgerald was sacked. Fitzgerald settled down in the second half and engineered an 8-play, 9-yard drive that resulted in Keith Mixon's first career touchdown catch on a 37-yard strike from Fitzgerald. Fred Ross then reached the endzone for the fourth straight game, hauling in an 8-yard Fitzgerald pass that cut the lead to 35-14 early in the fourth quarter. It would be MSU's final points of the day. Richie Brown led all tacklers with a career-best 14 -- the most by a Bulldog since 2012 -- while Mark McLaurin added a career-high 10 tackles. State lost the turnover battle for the first time all season and both turnovers resulted in a combined 14 points for the Tigers.

BYU Downs MSU in Two Overtimes, 28-21

BYU quarterback Taysom Hill threw three touchdowns, including a 25-yard game-winner in the second overtime, as MSU fell 28-21 on a rare Friday night contest in Provo. It was the Bulldogs' first trip out West since 2002 and first to Provo since 2000. Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 296 yards and three touchdowns. Fitzgerald delivered a gutsy 2-yard TD run, diving over a defender, that gave MSU the lead in overtime but BYU answered quickly on Hill's 1-yard score. BYU went on offense on the first possession in the second overtime, scoring on the first play with a 25-yard pass. The Bulldogs then turned it over on downs on their possession and fans stormed the field. State took an early lead on a Keith Mixon 44-yard TD in which Fitzgerald kept the play alive. Fitzgerald gave MSU the lead going into halftime, 14-7. The Bulldog defense allowed only 126 yards in the first half. Safety Mark McLaurin, making his first career start in place of an injured Kivon Coman, recorded his first career interception in the second quarter. Freshman Leo Lewis led the Bulldogs with a career-best 12 tackles.

Kentucky Outlasts MSU in Shootout, 40-38

Austin MacGinnis drilled four field goals, including a 51-yarder as time expired, as Kentucky outlasted MSU in a 40-38 shootout on a cool night in Commonwealth Stadium. It was the Bulldogs' second straight loss on the final play. The tandem of Nick Fitzgerald and Fred Ross connected for a 7-yard touchdown pass that gave MSU a 38-37 lead with 1:09 to play. The clutch third down conversion capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive that erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit. However, the Wildcats marched 46 yards on six plays into field goal territory. UK looked to pull away early in the fourth quarter, nearly making it a 17-point advantage before a crucial series by a pair of MSU underclassmen. UK played a second down from the MSU 5 before true freshman Jeffery Simmons forced a fumble of quarterback Stephen Johnson. The ball was then picked up and returned 81 yards for a touchdown by sophomore Mark McLaurin. The 14-point swing brought the Bulldogs to within 34-31 with 9:33 to go. Fitzgerald finished with his third 100-yard rushing game of the year. DeAndre Ward and Gerri Green led the Bulldogs with eight tackles apiece, while Johnathan Calvin added seven tackles, including two for loss and one sack.

Records Fall as MSU Wins Homecoming, 56-41

Nick Fitzgerald tied an SEC and MSU record with seven touchdowns responsible for as the Bulldogs went on to a 56-41 victory over FCS foe Samford on Homecoming. Fitzgerald matched the record of Dak Prescott and became the first MSU QB to post a 400-yard passing/100-yard rushing game. He rushed for two scores and tied Prescott's school record for passing touchdowns with five. The Bulldogs put a school-record 669 yards of total offense. Donald Gray finished with a career-best 207 receiving yards, and he tied the school record for receiving touchdowns with three. Gray and Fitzgerald connected for a pair of 70+ yard touchdown passes in the first half, giving the Bulldogs a 28-20 lead at halftime. Fred Ross broke school records for consecutive games with a catch (30) and 100-yard receiving games (9) as he finished with nine catches for 107 yards and one score. Gray's 51-yard TD catch -- his third of the night -- followed by DeAndre Ward's 35-yard interception return put the Bulldogs up 49-26. Fitzgerald capped the scoring with a 1-yard run that put the game away. Richie Brown finished with a game-high 13 tackles. The squads combined for 97 points, 185 plays and 1,296 yards of total offense.

MSU Knocks Off No. 4 Texas A&M, 35-28

Mississippi State erupted for 28 points in the first half, and Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 391 yards of total offense and four touchdowns as the Bulldogs stunned No. 4 Texas A&M in Davis Wade Stadium. Fitzgerald got the crowd going right away, racing 74 yards for a touchdown on MSU's first play from scrimmage. The Bulldogs amassed 365 yards rushing and 574 yards of total offense. Aeris Williams registered his first career 100-yard game, finishing with 140 on 24 carries. His 2-yard run put MSU up 14-7. A&M responded with its first score but two brilliant drives led by Fitzgerald ended with Fred Ross touchdowns. Fitzgerald found Ross in stride for a 60-yard touchdown down the sideline. The Bulldogs led 28-14 at the half. Midway through the third quarter, Johnathan Calvin forced a fumble that halted an A&M drive. With MSU holding on to a 28-21 lead early in the fourth quarter, Fitzgerald engineered perhaps the best drive of the year. The Bulldogs used up 7:26, going 73 yards that was capped with Fitzgerald's second rushing TD of the day. A&M cut the lead to one possession with 1:33 to play and got the ball back again with 0:27 at its own 20-yard line. Jake Hubenak, filling in for an injured Trevor Knight the entire second half, was then intercepted by MSU's Mark McLaurin at midfield. Richie Brown led the Bulldogs with eight tackles. The Bulldogs' 365 rushing yards were their most in an SEC game since putting up 390 against Kentucky on Oct. 29, 1994.

Top-Ranked Alabama Stays Perfect, 51-3

Top-ranked Alabama put up 615 yards of total offense to stretch its winning streak to 22 straight by a 51-3 fashion against Mississippi State. The rare 11 a.m. Bryant-Denny Stadium kickoff saw the Bulldogs fall behind 30-0 at the half and 10-0 on the first two possessions. Nick Fitzgerald was sacked twice and held to 15 yards rushing and no touchdowns. Aeris Williams was MSU's leading rusher with 56 yards on 11 carries. Fred Ross broke the school career record for receiving yards with his three catches for 23 yards. Westin Graves accounted for the Bulldogs' only points, drilling a 47-yarder on MSU's first possession of the second half. Fitzgerald found Donald Gray for two passes for 35 yards to set up the field goal. DeAndre Ward, an Alabama native, was the game-leading tackler with seven tackles, including a career-high 1.5 for loss. Jamoral Graham recorded his second interception of the season, picking off Jalen Hurts midway through the first quarter. MSU got inside the Alabama 40-yard line six times and managed points only once on the Graves field goal.

Arkansas Wins Shootout on Senior Night, 58-42

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 459 yards of total offense and six touchdowns, but Arkansas outlasted the Bulldogs by a score of 58-42 in the home finale. A total of 19 seniors were recognized in pregame ceremonies, including wide receiver Fred Ross who hauled in 10 passes for a career-best 171 yards and two touchdowns. Fitzgerald rushed for four scores. He had a 58-yard run on MSU's first drive and followed that up with an 18-yard score to tie the game at 14 all with 1:25 remaining in the first quarter. The Razorbacks responded with 24 unanswered points in the second quarter, scoring on all four of their possessions. Rawleigh Williams had a career-night rushing for 205 yards and four touchdowns. The Bulldogs outscored Arkansas 28-20 in the second half. Ross hauled in a 40-yarder from Fitzgerald and closed out the scoring with a 15-yard catch with 2:15 to play. The Razorbacks did not punt once on the night. Senior Kivon Coman, playing in his final home game, finished with a career-best and game-high 15 tackles. J.T. Gray added two tackles for loss.

MSU Dominates Ole Miss in Egg Bowl, 55-20

MSU recorded its largest Egg Bowl victory since 1916 as quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 367 yards and five touchdowns in a 55-20 romp of Ole Miss in Oxford. Fitzgerald shattered the MSU single-game record for rushing yards, carrying 14 times for 258 yards and two touchdowns to break Anthony Dixon's mark. Fitzgerald averaged a school-record 18.4 yards per carry, which was the highest by an SEC player in a conference game in league history. The Bulldogs produced a 200-yard rusher (Fitzgerald) and a 100-yard rusher (Aeris Williams) for the first time in school history. Williams scored two first-half touchdowns that put the Bulldogs up double-digits going into halftime. Jamal Peters delivered a clutch interception in the endzone to halt a potential touchdown drive in the second quarter. MSU outscored the Rebels, 28-0, in the second half. Fred Ross caught his only pass of the game and raced 38 yards for a score down the sideline. Fitzgerald then scored on runs of 61 and 30. Cedric Jiles put on the finishing touches when he intercepted Shea Patterson's pass and returned it 74 yards for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter. Kivon Coman, in his final Egg Bowl, had a team-high eight tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. Senior Johnathan Calvin registered 2.5 tackles for loss. The win was MSU's first in Oxford since 2010 and the 60th for head coach Dan Mullen.

Special Teams, Fitzgerald Lead MSU To 17-16 Win In St. Petersburg Bowl

With some last-second theatrics, State's Nelson Adams blocked Miami's potential game-winning field goal attempt with five seconds left to lift MSU to a 17-16 victory in the St. Petersburg Bowl. It was MSU's second block of the game with the Bulldogs' Johnathan Calvin also knocking down a Miami extra point attempt early in the game that would ultimately provide the one-point difference in State's triumph. Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald was named MVP of the game after totaling 268 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 126 yards, while he tied Anthony Dixon's program record with his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year, running for a total of 142 yards and two touchdowns. Following a 44-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald and an interception by sophomore cornerback Jamoral Graham in the third quarter, junior place kicker Westin Graves gave MSU its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter, hitting a 36-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 17-16, the final points of the game by either team. The Bulldogs were paced defensively by senior linebacker Richie Brown with nine tackles, in addition to a forced fumble, in the final game of his career. State's defense forced two turnovers over the course of the game.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MSU has produced four National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes/William V. Campbell Trophy finalists with Taveze Calhoun being the most recent in December 2015. Calhoun was the SEC's only representative in 2015. Calhoun was awarded an $18,000 post graduate scholarship and honored at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York. Since 2010, MSU is tied for the SEC lead in number of NFF National Scholar-Athletes produced with two. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation and is the highest academic honor in college football.

Derek Sherrod was a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete in 2010, the first in the Dan Mullen era.

MISSISSIPPI STATE DUQUESNE

January 1, 1937 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the post-season clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

January 1, 1941 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

MISSISSIPPI STATE NC STATE

December 21, 1963 • Philadelphia Stadium • Philadelphia, Penn.

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

MISSISSIPPI STATE NORTH CAROLINA

26 24

December 28, 1974 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rocky Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's All-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

#8 NEBRASKA 31

December 27, 1980 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10 KANSAS 0

December 31, 1981 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

December 29, 1991 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

#19 NORTH CAROLINA 21

January 1, 1993 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

#16 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24

#23 NC STATE 28

January 2, 1995 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

#23 MISSISSIPPI STATE 11 #20 TEXAS 38

January 1, 1999 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

#15 MISSISSIPPI STATE 17 CLEMSON 7

December 30, 1999 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime. The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 43 TEXAS A&M 41 (OT)

December 31, 2000 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenso Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

MISSISSIPPI STATE UCF

December 29, 2007 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

#21 MISSISSIPPI STATE 52 MICHIGAN 14

January 1, 2011 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. The 281 passing yards were the second most in MSU bowl history. They are also the only two quarterbacks to throw for more than 200 yards in a bowl game. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Ala., also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter.

Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first-career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5 of 5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first touchdown of the freshman's career.

MISSISSIPPI STATE WAKE FOREST

23 17

December 30, 2011 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Donning the Maroon and White for the final time, senior running back Vick Ballard put the team on his back as he rushed for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to propel Mississippi State to a 23-17 victory against Wake Forest in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Pascagoula, Miss., native was named MVP, while his production was the second best in MSU bowl history.

It was the Bulldogs' fifth-consecutive bowl win, a streak that tied Rutgers for the longest in the nation. MSU also improved to 9-6 in bowl outings, with a 4-2 mark against ACC foes.

Ballard deserves a bulk of the credit for MSU's latest achievement, breaking free down the sidelines for a 60-yard scoring scamper with 34 seconds left in the opening quarter to even the game at 7-apiece after the Demon Deacons had scored on a 14-yard run by Brandon Pendergrass.

In the second quarter, Mississippi State turned to its passing game to take the lead for good when senior quarterback Chris Relf connected with a wide open Arceto Clark for a 31-yard scoring strike and a 13-7 advantage following the missed PAT. The touchdown was set up when junior defensive end and All-American Fletcher Cox blocked a Wake Forest field goal.

The final points of the half resulted in a 33-yard Derek DePasquale field goal which put MSU up, 16-7.

In the second half, though, Wake Forest grabbed the early momentum when Tommy Bohanon closed the gap to 16-14 on a 1-yard plunge. However, it would be as close as the Demon Deacons would get.

Ballard made sure of that in the fourth quarter when he broke free for a 72-yard touchdown, the longest in MSU bowl history, to swell the lead to 23-14.

Wake would score again on a 46-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman, but from that point the MSU defense thwarted any comeback hopes by taking its play to another level.

Offensively, MSU outgained Wake, 382-287. Relf threw for 129 yards on 12-of-19 passing, while also rushing for another 64 yards en route to finishing his career as MSU's winningest quarterback (15-7).

The defense was led by the play of Cox and Corey Broomfield, who registered a career-best two tackles behind the line of scrimmage to go along with a team-high nine tackles. It was a unit that recorded six sacks, the most since having seven in a 47-35 home win against No. 3 Florida on Sept. 30, 2000.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 20 #20 NORTHWESTERN 34

January 1, 2013 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

The No. 20 Northwestern Wildcats (10-3) downed the Mississippi State Bulldogs (9-5) 34-20 in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Northwestern wasted no time getting on the board when Quentin Williams returned a Tyler Russell interception 29 yards just 47 seconds into the game.

Jeff Budzien added a pair of field goals on the Wildcats next two drives from 34 and 37 yards, respectively.

The Bulldog defense then stopped the Northwestern offense on back-to-back drives leading to MSU's first points of the day.

Devon Bell got the scoring going with a 27-yard field goal. After MSU forced a three-and-out, Russell connected with Arceto Clark for an 18-yard touchdown and sent State to the locker room only trailing by three.

Nickoe Whitley stopped Northwestern's first drive of the second half with the first of his two interceptions on the day. Three minutes later, Bell tied his career-long with a 47-yard field goal to square the game at 13 apiece.

The Wildcats quickly retook the lead with a six-play, 76-yard drive that only took 1:12 off the clock and then added another touchdown with 1:35 left in the third quarter to take 27-13 lead into the final stanza.

MSU tacked on another touchdown when Russell floated a pass to Malcolm Johnson in center of the endzone just 3:18 into the fourth quarter.

The MSU defense forced another three-and-out on Northwestern's next drive but, Russell's fourth interception of the day was returned 44 yards to the five yard line. The Wildcats punched in their final touchdown to secure the win.

Josh Robinson finished the game as State's leading rusher with 91 yards on seven carries. Junior LaDarius Perkins added 85 yards on 19 carries.

Clark finished with three catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Johnson hauled in two catches for 24 yards and a score. Chad Bumphis also grabbed three catches for 18 yards in his final game as a Bulldog.

Russell completed 12-of-28 for 106 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions.

MISSISSIPPI STATE RICE

December 31, 2013 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season and year with a fitting celebration Tuesday, ousting the Rice Owls 44-7 to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The margin of victory was the largest in any bowl game played thus far in 2013.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth-straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever, now 3-1 in four bowl appearances in his five seasons as the Bulldog mentor.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Junior receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible and vault itself into Tuesday's contest in Memphis.

#7 MISSISSIPPI STATE 34

#12 GEORGIA TECH 49

December 31, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Mississippi State (10-3) fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and Georgia Tech's (11-3) triple-option attack proved to be the difference in a 49-34 score in the 2014 Capital One Orange Bowl at Sun Life Stadium. It was the Bulldogs' first appearance in the contest in 73 years, capping a 10-win season.

A turnover on MSU's first possession led to a Tech touchdown, setting the tone for the rest of the evening. Both teams combined for nearly 1,200 total yards with most of State's coming through the air and nearly all of Tech's on the ground.

MSU junior quarterback Dak Prescott set several records over the course of the evening, throwing for over 400 yards and becoming the all-time record Bulldog holder for yards in a career at MSU, surpassing Don Smith. He also set the school single-game record for total offense with exactly 500 yards against Tech, 453 coming through the air. The highlight of the evening was Prescott's Hail Mary 42-yard touchdown pass to Fred Ross as time expired in the first half. Ross caught the touchdown off a deflection in the end zone that pulled the Bulldogs to within 21-20.

However, Tech's ground attack quickly got rolling in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown run a minute into the third quarter. The Yellow Jackets scored 21 unanswered points. MSU's De'Runnya Wilson caught two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter but it proved to be too late.

NC STATE MISSISSIPPI STATE

December 30, 2015 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

In a fitting end to the greatest career in MSU history, Dak Prescott threw for a Belk Bowl-record 380 yards and four touchdowns on a rain-soaked field as MSU capped a nine-win season with a 51-28 blowout of NC State in Charlotte. Selected the game MVP, Prescott completed 25 of 42 passes and ran for 47 yards joining Colin Kaepernick, Tim Tebow, Dan LeFevour as the only players in FBS history to throw for 9,000 yards and run for 2,500 yards in their career. The Bulldog defense set the tone early. On the first play from scrimmage, defensive end Jonathan Calvin hit Jacoby Brissett as he released the ball and linebacker Gerri Green came up with the diving interception. Five plays later, Fred Ross hauled in a pass from Prescott in the left flat, turned up the left sideline and raced 14 yards for a score. Brissett had another pass picked off later in the first quarter and Prescott capitalized by finding De'Runnya Wilson for a 28-yard scoring strike. MSU made it 21-0 when Ross scored on a 33-yard reverse. Prescott lobbed his third TD pass of the game to Holloway over a blitzing defense to put the Bulldogs up 37-21 late in the third quarter. The senior quarterback hit Holloway in stride on a go route along the right sideline for a 55-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. Beniquez Brown and J.T. Gray led all tacklers with nine. Prescott was lifted in the final minute to a standing ovation. The win propelled MSU to back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories for the first time in school history.

MIAMI (OHIO) MISSISSIPPI STATE

December 26, 2016 • Tropicana Field • St. Petersburg, Fla.

A pair of blocked kicks, a field goal and two touchdown runs from quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led Mississippi State to a 17-16 victory over Miami [Ohio] in the 2016 St. Petersburg Bowl. With some last-second theatrics, State's Nelson Adams blocked Miami's potential game-winning field goal attempt with five seconds left to lift MSU to the win.

It was MSU's second block of the game with the Bulldogs' Johnathan Calvin also knocking down a Miami extra point attempt early in the game that would ultimately provide the one-point difference in State's triumph. Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald was named MVP of the game after totaling 268 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 126 yards, while he tied Anthony Dixon's program record with his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year, running for a total of 142 yards and two touchdowns.

After a slow start to the game (State trailed 9-0 in the second quarter), MSU's offense began to pick up near the end of the first half, scoring on a two-yard keeper by Fitzgerald with 22 seconds left before the intermission. Following a 44-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald and an interception by sophomore cornerback Jamoral Graham in the third quarter, junior place kicker Westin Graves gave MSU its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter, hitting a 36-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 17-16.

The Bulldogs were paced defensively by senior linebacker Richie Brown with nine tackles, in addition to a forced fumble. State's defense forced two turnovers over the course of the game.

* - Led SEC (ranked on yards-per-game since 1970)

Quarterback John Bond led Mississippi State in total offense all four years of his career (1980-83).

Future NFL running back Jerious Norwood topped the Bulldogs in scoring during the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

BOLD denotes school record

WELCOME TO #STARKVEGAS

“Those polite Mississippians ditch the Southern hospitality in favor of sadism, transforming their stadium into a torture chamber. They ceaselessly pound upon your eardrums. The high-volume video board functions as a waterboard. Then the fans add one more layer of sound by howling hysterically for four hours. On football Saturdays in 2014, with a dream of a team to cheer for, it is an ear-splitting slice of hell for the visiting team. Of all the intimidating venues in America, I cannot imagine a single more oppressive place than previously sleepy Davis Wade Stadium.”

– Pat Forde, Yahoo.com (10.11.14)

“Mississippi State was truly incredible. If I was to rank the SEC Nation shows and experiences this year, Mississippi State is No. 1. You cannot find a square inch of open grass (in the Junction). The loudest fans we have heard so far in college football this year.”

– Joe Tessitore, SEC Network (10.23.14)

“Want to know what a revolution sounds like? Between the third and fourth quarter, Journey’s “Don’t Stop Believin” blares through the stadium speakers. The throng rings cowbells to the beat, creating a deafening roar as they try to hold on to the feeling.”

– Pete Thamel, Sports Illustrated (10.10.14)

“Las Vegas is great but there isn’t any place like StarkVegas right now. My man Dan (Mullen) has StarkVegas shoes.”

– Jim Rome, Jim Rome Show (10.15.14)

“The weekend in Starkville was one of the most electric and extraordinary I’ve ever experienced covering the Southeastern Conference. I have never seen anything quite like this in my 35 years of covering college football. We could spend the rest of our lives trying to top that show.”

– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network, on the Oct. 4, 2014 SEC Nation Show

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

“The loudest game I have ever attended – start to finish – even postgame. You haven’t lived until you’ve heard ‘Don’t Stop Believing’ with accompaniment from 50,000 cowbells.”

– Stewart Mandel, Fox Sports (10.11.14)

“The environment Saturday at Davis Wade Stadium was as electric as any college sporting event you’re ever going to find. It was the loudest stadium I’ve ever been in and it wasn’t just the cowbells. It was an awesome environment all the way around and great people.”

– Chris Low, ESPN.com (10.11.14)

“The combination of the big-game atmosphere with the clanging of the cowbells created a raucous environment that rivals that of any stadium in any sport.”

– Barrett Sallee, Bleacher Report (10.13.14)

“To all those Bulldog fans shining those cell phone flashlights and singing along to Don’t Stop Believin’, they make Davis Wade Stadium the most fun place to watch a football game in the SEC.”

– Kevin Scarbinsky, AL.com (11.14.15)

“Poor you. You spent Saturday somewhere other than Mississippi. I’m sorry. You didn’t get goose bumps from a late-morning Starkville din so loud it seemed set to jar loose the Mississippi-Alabama borderline and hurl it nearer Tuscaloosa.”

– Chuck Culpepper, Washington Post (10.5.14)

“These are the most genuine, authentic fans in America.”

– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network, on the Nov. 14, 2015 SEC Nation show

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

Capacity: 61,337

Head coach Dan Mullen and the Mississippi State Bulldogs return to the raucous atmosphere of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in 2017 in the midst of a span that has seen 15 wins over the last 21 home games. In 2014, the Bulldogs tied the single-season school record for home victories, posting a 7-0 mark en route to the program's first No. 1 national ranking. All of the top 20 crowds in stadium history have come during Mullen's tenure as head coach of the Bulldogs.

Christened after Olympic sprinter Don Magruder Scott, one of State's first football superstars, the 103-year-old historic facility (the nation's second-oldest Division I-A campus football stadium) has undergone five renovation and expansion projects during its history. The first game at Scott Field came with an MSU win over Marion (Ala.) Military Institute, 54-0, on Oct. 3, 1914.

More than $100 million in football projects have been initiated in the last few years. Of that figure, $75 million of it went towards the nationally-praised 2014 Davis Wade expansion.

The latest addition of note was the expansion of the north end zone completed in August 2014 which increased capacity to 61,337, provided additional premium seating, elevators, restrooms and concessions, and a completely new west side concourse. Construction began in August 2012.

The construction contract for the project was awarded to the Harrell Contracting Group of Jackson, Miss. Harrell won the construction project in a university sealed bid process.

The north end zone addition created a total of 8,815 new seats, which, factored with the loss of the previously existing bleacher seating in the north end zone, resulted in a net 6,255-seat increase. Included in those 8,815 seats were 7,076 grandstand seats, 1,155 Scoreboard Club seats, 236 loge seats, 22 traditional suites totaling approximately 288 seats and 60 field-level suite seats. Additionally, standing room availability and ADA-compliant seating were also included in the project.

Also included in the north end zone is a non-seated, field level premium area, The Gridiron, which provides club-like amenities to any season ticket holder who buys a membership regardless of that person's stadium seat location.

The new area became a fan favorite during the 2014 season. Following all seven of the Bulldogs' home wins, the team sang the alma mater and then took a victory lap in front of The Gridiron. The visiting team locker room was also relocated to the north end zone addition, allowing the gameday recruiting center to expand in its current location.

The north end also features a new high-definition video board similar in size to the one currently standing on the stadium's south end, which is among the largest in college athletics.

The west side renovation showcases a rebuilt concourse under the west stands, the addition of four high-capacity elevators, an increase in restroom and concession point of sale facilities and a brick facade that matches the new construction on the north. In 2014, fans saw the number of elevators at Davis Wade Stadium more than double (from five to 12), the restroom fixture total nearly double (from 313 to 621), and permanent concession point of sale positions increase by over 40 percent (from 110 to 156).

For media, the project included a new television compound away from the stadium proper. The TV compound is now located west of the stadium, allowing network broadcast trucks to connect to stadium equipment via underground cable runs.

The renovation and expansion was funded by the sale of $68 million in bonds and $7 million in private giving. Private contributions for the stadium project were part of the Bulldog Club's "Today. Tomorrow. Forever" Athletics Facilities Initiative, which is completely independent of annual giving and priority seating donations.

Construction and renovation design for the Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation was handled by local architect LPK of Meridian, Miss., along with national sports consultants 360 Architecture of Kansas City. The design team engineered the north end zone facility to support future expansion of approximately 5,000 seats, including 22 additional suites and an upper deck.

The 2014 renovation and expansion came on the heels of installing $1.4 million LED ribbon boards in the summer of 2011. The project, funded by the Bulldog Club, is located in the upper deck facades on the east and west sides, and brings fans in-game graphics, scores, stats and other pertinent information to improve the game-day experience.

One of the most talked about features at Davis Wade, however, is one of college football's largest high-definition video boards, located in the south end zone of the stadium. The $6.1 million true HD board spans the roof of the Leo Seal M-Club Center in the south end zone at Scott Field. The board measures 152 feet wide by 135 feet, 6 inches tall, with a main HD screen 111 feet wide by 47 feet high.

The last previous expansion came in the summer of 2000 and raised capacity to 55,082 with the addition of 50 skyboxes and 1,700 club-level seats. The expansion continued into the 2001 season with the addition of 7,000 upper-deck seats. The entire project, completed at a cost in excess of $30 million, was made possible, in large part, by a financial commitment from the late Floyd Davis Wade Sr., of Meridian, Miss., for whom the stadium itself is now named.

Earlier building efforts in 1936 and 1948 brought capacity at Scott Field to 35,000 seats and provided the basic concrete grandstand structure (35 years after the '48 expansion, the end zone seating structures were removed, lowering the capacity to 32,000 in 1983). But after 25 years, Scott Field was ready for another facelift and an expanded seating potential for the school's growing following.

A $7.2 million drive in 1986, spearheaded by former MSU athletic director Carl Maddox and an active group of university and community leaders, financed the addition of 9,000 seats to Scott Field's capacity without the use of appropriated state funding. A 5,500-seat upper deck, an additional 1,700 chairback seats that extend from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairback seats flanking the Bob Hartley Press Box on the second level were added to the west side. Two 1,700-seat sections were added to the east side stands to bring capacity to 40,656.

Other improvements to the stadium have also been made. In the summer of 1999, the Turman Fieldhouse on the south end of the stadium underwent many changes, including enhanced dressing rooms and a new recruiting lounge for Bulldog football prospects.

The third floor addition to the Turman Fieldhouse -- the Leo Seal M-Club -- houses a heritage room and game-day gathering place for former Bulldog athletes, and serves as one of the campus' more popular meeting places. The $1.4 million project, completed in 1990, was made possible through the generosity of MSU alumnus and former Bulldog football letterman Leo Seal Jr., who named the building in honor of his father, also a two-year football letterwinner at State.

Earning a reputation of being one of the nation's toughest places to play, the facility has been host to average attendances in excess of 55,000 the last six seasons. In fact, the last 10 years have seen the largest cumulative totals in the stadium's history.

In 2011, Mullen and his program watched as each game recorded a then top-15 all-time attendance mark at Davis Wade Stadium, including 57,871 against Alabama (second) and 56,924 vs. LSU (fourth). The 335,695 total fans to watch a game in Starkville was then the highest ever for a six-game schedule at the venue.

State fans broke the school record for total attendance again in 2013 with 389,868 total fans, including a seven-game record average of 55,695. On Nov. 16, 2013, 57,211 people wrapped in Maroon and White attended the Alabama game, the fourth-largest crowd in school history.

During the memorable 2014 campaign, the first in the new expansion, MSU set attendance records for single-season total attendance (427,892), single-game average attendance (61,127) and single-game attendance (62,945). The 2014 Bulldogs also tied the school record for home wins as their 7-0 mark matched the 1999 team. The seven home victories also helped State to the first 10-win regular season in program history.

MSU broke total attendance (432,490) and single-game average attendance (61,784) for the third straight year in 2015. That year, the Bulldogs eclipsed over 50,000 in season ticket sales for the first time in program history. The previous high for season ticket sales was 45,575 in 2014, and prior to that was 43,894 in 2013.

National media have proclaimed the new north end zone expansion has arguably made Davis Wade Stadium the noisiest from start to finish in college football. A sea of maroon and white in The Junction turned out for the first-ever SEC Nation broadcast in Starkville on the SEC Network prior to State's thumping of Texas A&M on Oct. 4. One week later, ESPN College GameDay made its first appearance in Starkville on Oct. 11 as No. 3 MSU battled No. 2 Auburn in a matchup of the highest ranked teams in the stadium's history. ESPN personality Lee Corso donned a Bulldog mascot head to a roar from the crowd. Hours later, MSU topped Auburn, 38-23, before a record crowd of 62,945 in the loudest game in school history. The victory ascended the program to its first No. 1 national ranking.

Scott Field's playing surface, which hosted 16-straight home victories between 1998-2000, is lush Hybrid Bermuda Grass (Certified Tifway 419), complete with an underground drainage and irrigation system. The field is encircled by a holly-lined sideline fence and end zone landscaping.

Entering the 2017 season, a total of 9,628,915 Bulldog fans have entered the turnstiles at Davis Wade Stadium since 1970.

On Oct. 11, 2014, No. 3 MSU hosted No. 2 Auburn and set a Davis Wade Stadium attendance record of 62,945 as the Bulldogs downed the Tigers, 38-23, with ESPN's College GameDay on hand for the first time.

TIMELINE HISTORY OF SCOTT FIELD

1914 – Mississippi A&M's football field moves to its current stadium location and is called the "New Athletic Field."

1920 – Student body adopts a resolution name the field Scott Field in honor of Don Scott, famed Olympic runner and Bulldog football standout from 1915-16.

1928 – Permanent seating for 3,000 fans is built on the west side of Scott Field at a cost of $15,000. In addition portable stands are placed on the east side of the field with a similar capacity.

1936 – Construction begins on concrete stands on the west side with Works Progress Administration labor. The new concrete facility will seat 8,000, while bleachers on the east side and in the end zone bring capacity to 20,000.

1948 – Scott Field is enlarged to 35,000 by increasing the west side concrete stands to 15,000 and the construction of 12,000 concrete seats on the east side of the stadium.

1983 – End zone seating structures are removed, reducing capacity to 32,000.

1986 – A $7.2 million expansion occurs, adding 9,000 seats to Scott Field's west side, including a 5,500-seat upper deck, 1,700 chairback seats extending from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairbacks flanking the press box. Two 1,700-seat sections are also added to the west side stands, bringing total capacity to 40,656.

1999 – Plans are announced for the largest expansion project in stadium history. A $30-million effort, backed largely by longtime MSU supporter Davis Wade, will add an estimated 10,500 seats and 50 luxury skyboxes, bringing total capacity to approximately 55,000 by the 2002 season. The new stadium, when completed, is renamed Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

2005 – Permanent end zone seating replaces temporary bleacher seating at the north end of the stadium, bringing official capacity to 55,082.

2012 – Construction begins on a $75-million expansion of the north end zone and the renovation of the west side concourse, bringing official capacity to 61,337 by the start of the 2014 season.

2014 – In a 49-0 win over Southern Miss on Saturday, Aug. 30, MSU celebrates 100 years of Scott Field and officially opens the new north end zone expansion before a record crowd of 61,889. The record would later be broken that season when Auburn came to town.

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY

In 2014, MSU celebrated 100 years of Scott Field in conjunction with the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium, which was originally built in 1914. Scott Field is the second-oldest stadium in FBS behind Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium.

OLDEST STADIUMS IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Stadium	School	Built	Location
1. Franklin Field	Penn	1895	Pennsylvania, Penn.
2. Harvard Stadium	Harvard	1903	Boston, Mass.
3. Bobby Dodd	Georgia Tech	1913	Atlanta, Ga.
4. Yale Bowl	Yale	1913	New Haven, Conn.
5. Davis Wade	Mississippi State	1914	Starkville, Miss.

While it may be one of the oldest in college football, it is in no way outdated. The $75-million renovation and expansion that was completed in 2014 makes it the only stadium among the top five oldest in FBS to be expanded since 2005.

PACKED HOUSE

MSU is second nationally in percentage of average attendance increase in the last 10 years based on stadiums over 60,000 capacity. In 2004, State's average attendance was 43,792, while in 2014 it was 61,127, marking a percentage increase of 39.6. MSU trails only Texas A&M, which saw a 41.1 percentage increase from 2004-14.

State ranked ninth among FBS teams in largest average attendance increase from the previous year with a jump from 55,695 in 2013 to 61,127 in 2014 - a change in average of 5,432.

THE UNIVERSITY

Mississippi State is a comprehensive doctoral-degree-granting institution offering a diverse student body a wide range of opportunities and challenges for learning and growth.

The largest university in the Magnolia State, MSU has a statewide enrollment of more than 21,000 students, and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters, specialists and doctorate degrees.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research and service.

The University began as The Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State of Mississippi, one of the national Land-Grant Colleges established after Congress had passed the Morrill Act in 1862. It was created by the Mississippi Legislature on February 28, 1878, to fulfill the mission of offering training in "agriculture, horticulture and the mechanical arts . . . without excluding other scientific and classical studies, including military tactics."

The College received its first students in the fall of 1880 in the presidency of Confederate General Stephen D. Lee. In 1887 Congress passed the Hatch Act, which provided for the establishment of the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1888. Two other pieces of federal legislation provided funds for extending the mission of the College: in 1914, the Smith-Lever Act called for "instruction in practical agriculture and home economics to persons not attendant or resident," thus creating the state-wide effort which led to Extension offices in every county in the State; and, in 1917, the Smith-Hughes Act provided for the training of teachers in vocational education.

By 1932, when the Legislature renamed the College as Mississippi State College, it consisted of the Agricultural Experiment Station (1887), the College of Engineering (1902), the College of Agriculture (1903), the School of Industrial Pedagogy (1909), the School of General Science (1911), the College of Business and Industry (1915), the Mississippi Agricultural Extension Service (1915), and the Division of Continuing Education, (1919). Further, in 1926 the College had received its first accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

By 1958, when the Legislature again renamed the College, as Mississippi State University, the Office of Graduate Studies had been organized (1936), doctoral degree programs had begun (1951), the School of Forest Resources had been established (1954), and the College of Arts and Sciences had been created (1956).

The College of Architecture admitted its first students in 1973. The College of Veterinary Medicine admitted its first class in 1977, and the School of Accountancy was established in 1979.

POINTS OF PRIDE AT MSU

- Mississippi State ranks among the top 100 institutions across the country in the number of bachelor's degrees awarded to African-Americans.
- Over the last decade, five MSU professors have been named Mississippi Professor of the Year by the National Council for Advancement and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- MSU serves as the national lead university for the Federal Aviation Administration's Center of Excellence of Unmanned Aircraft Systems, putting MSU on the cutting edge of this new era of research, development and integration into the nation's airspace.
- MSU's research and development expenditures reached $226.4 million in 2016, accounting for more than half of the total $410 million spent in this area by all Mississippi institutions.
- MSU's Geosciences Department's meteorology program is among the nation's best with more than one-third of today's TV broadcast meteorologists having been trained at MSU and now working in 85 percent of all U.S. markets.
- MSU is one of four universities nationwide recognized in the 2015 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll in the Economic Opportunity category.
- As a leader in integrated computational materials engineering, MSU stands at the forefront of research of mechanical responses for the brain under car crashes, football concussions and military explosions.
- Design Intelligence ranks MSU's School of Architecture as the nation's 25th best from a list of approximately 120 architectural programs accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board.
- U.S. News & World Report ranks MSU's Distance MBA program and its Distance Master of Science in Information Systems program in the top 50 among the nation's best online programs.
- Solutions to world hunger and poverty are within reach at MSU, where globally diversified teams are combining forces with the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to eliminate starvation in developing countries.
- MSU's student-led teams are developing the Car of the Future® – a lighter, greener, more cost-effective hybrid built on technologies that will lead to energy independence and environmental stewardship.

2016-17 ATHLETIC SUCCESS

- MSU tied its second-highest Learfield Director's Cup finish, taking 49th place with 490 points. MSU placed in the top 50 of the Director's Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in school history.

- Nine sports advanced to NCAA postseason play, while six teams finished ranked in the Top 25 of their respective sports – baseball, women's cross country, women's basketball, men's tennis, women's tennis and women's indoor track.

- Four sports – women's cross country, women's basketball, women's track and field (indoor and outdoor) – posted or tied their highest NCAA Championships/post-season finish ever.

- With women's basketball's Final Four appearance, MSU is the only program in America since June 2013 to go to a New Year's Six Bowl Game, College World Series Final and a Final Four (men's or women's).

- Nine Bulldogs earned first-team All-America status, while two were recognized as Southeastern Conference Players of the Year (baseball's Brent Rooker and men's tennis' Nuno Borges).

Morgan William's buzzer-beater proved to be one of the greatest moments in NCAA Tournament history as MSU snapped top-ranked UConn's record 111-game win streak.

Brent Rooker became the second player in SEC history to win the Triple Crown, joining former MSU legend Rafael Palmeiro, who accomplished the feat in 1984. Rooker also became just the second MSU athlete to claim the Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year Award.

Nuno Borges, the SEC Player of the Year, became the first tennis singles player in school history to reach the NCAA Championship semifinals. Matt Roberts' squad reached the SEC Tournament finals for the first time since 1996.

THE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State University's athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully.'

As with most universities, Mississippi State University teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies. When the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932, the nickname Maroons, for MSU's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status.

Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year, the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade."

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

OFFICIAL MASCOT IN 1935

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year - perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history. But Bully I earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even Life magazine covered the event. Other Bullies have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnappers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullies once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the School of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

BULLY XXI

At Super Bulldog Weekend 2015, the Bulldog family celebrated the passing of the harness, as Bully XXI, known as "Jak," accepted mascot duties from his father Bully XX, fondly called "Champ."

Jak's formal name is "Cristil's Golden Prince," and the American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog was born in October 2014, soon after the legendary Jack Cristil passed away. Naming the newest Bully for the legendary Voice of the Bulldogs who called football and basketball games for 58 years was a fitting choice.

When mascot handlers realized Bully was getting toward retiring age, though he's still in good health, a female bulldog was selected based on her pedigree and history. Following the female's selection, litter of mascot-sired puppies were evaluated.

THE COWBELL

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, diehard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and archrival Ole Miss, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm.

Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain by the 1950s cowbells were common at MSU games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of MSU. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves, obliged some students by welding handles on the bells so they could be rung with more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone. So, at the suggestion of Reeves, the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964, the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line being a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they were not heard at Southeastern Conference games - not legally, at least - since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote, SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them. The ban was lifted prior to the 2010 season.

The ban did little harm to the cowbell's popularity, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. They are now heard at non-conference football contests, as well as other sporting events on campus.

MAROON & WHITE

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering this choice to be an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that without hesitation Matthews chose Maroon and White.

SONGS OF MSU

MSU Alma Mater

*In the heart of Mississippi, Made by none but God's own hands,
Stately in her natural splendor, Our Alma Mater proudly stands.
Mississippi State, we love you; Fondest memories cling to thee,
Life shall bear thy spirit ever; Loyal friends we'll always be.*

CHORUS:

*Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing; Thy colors bright,
our souls delight; With praise our voices ring.*

"Hail State"

*Hail dear ole State! Fight for that victory today.
Hit that line and tote that ball, Cross the goal before you fall!
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear ole State we'll yell like H-E-L-L!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State.
Win the game today!*

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Now in his ninth year of tenure, Dr. Keenum has guided Mississippi State to unprecedented heights. The university has experienced record enrollment growth – climbing toward nearly 22,000 students. Mississippi State has awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for six straight years.

The campus has expanded and improved on Dr. Keenum's watch. Chief among those projects has been The Mill at MSU – a $40-million, state-of-the-art conference and meeting complex. A ribbon-cutting for the Old Main Academic Center, a new $41-million classroom building and multi-level parking garage, was recently celebrated. A $60-million project featuring two new residence halls and Nusz Hall, which houses the G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, opened last fall. A $10-million, fourth-floor expansion of Mitchell Memorial Library to house the Ulysses S. Grant Presidential Library will celebrate its official opening this fall. Mississippi State has completed or initiated capital improvements totaling more than $700 million since 2009.

A $55-million expansion and renovation of Dudy Noble Field/Polk-Dement Stadium – home to one of the most storied college baseball programs in America – is also underway. The first phase of the project added the largest video board in the nation to the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball." The second phase commenced in June at the conclusion of the 2017 season. This major investment will significantly enhance the Dudy Noble fan experience – already described by many as one of the most unique in college sports today.

New construction projects launching over the next two years include a new Music Building and the completion of an Animal and Dairy Science/Poultry Science complex for the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine. Additionally, the university is developing a comprehensive plan to build additional teaching and research lab space to meet growing demand.

Fundraising has reached all-time record levels. MSU's current Infinite Impact capital campaign reached its initial goal three years ahead of schedule. Due to that unprecedented success, the university announced a new goal – $1 billion by 2020 – the largest campaign goal ever for an educational institution in Mississippi. During his tenure, Dr. Keenum has been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means.

Mississippi State is ranked by the National Science Foundation as a "Top 100" research institution. The most recent research success has been MSU's designation as the Federal Aviation Administration's National Center of Excellence for Unmanned Aircraft Systems and Boeing's decision to locate a composite research center at MSU's Raspet Flight Research Laboratory. In fall 2016, the state of Mississippi became a member of the Pan-Pacific UAS Test Range Complex, one of the FAA's seven national test sites, and Mississippi State researchers will lead this Gulf Coast R&D hub for unmanned aircraft. This past spring, the Department of Homeland Security selected a Mississippi State-led team to operate its demonstration range facility for small unmanned aircraft systems.

In 2016, Dr. Keenum was elected president of the Southeastern Conference, where he is a member of the SEC Executive Committee and continues to serve on the SEC's Content Committee that oversees the highly successful ESPN-SEC Network. He also represents the SEC as a member of the College Football Playoff's (CFP) Board of Managers.

He is also serving as president of the Mississippi Association of Colleges and Universities, which promotes goodwill among the state's public and private colleges and universities and works to stimulate academic and professional cooperation. Mississippi State will host the organization's 2017 annual conference this fall.

Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in Jackson in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Mississippi State plays an integral role in economic development locally, statewide, and regionally. Its impact is further felt nationally and internationally through unique collaborative partnerships with peer institutions, business and industry, government agencies, and leading non-governmental organizations. Dr. Keenum leads these efforts because he understands the positive impact the nation's major research universities can have in the diverse communities they serve.

A graduate of Mississippi State with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum's interest in international food security has strengthened the university's contributions to global economic sustainability. In 2014, he was appointed vice chairman of the Foun-

ation for Food and Agricultural Research by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Thomas J. Vilsack. That same year along with other university presidents, he signed the Presidents' Commitment to Food and Nutrition Security at the United Nations in New York City. This marks the first time universities around the world began to share a collective focus on ending food insecurity.

Dr. Keenum's passion for international engagement and transformative research and service has positioned Mississippi State as a leader in addressing global food security and poverty, among other critical issues. In 2014 and again in 2016, he was invited to address the United Nations in New York about the crucial roles public research universities play as the global community works to address critical challenges for a growing population.

Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, D.C. and was Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

A graduate of Corinth High School, Dr. Keenum earned an associate in arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team. He is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

JOHN COHEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

When John Cohen was named Mississippi State University's 17th director of athletics on November 4, 2016, he wasted little time putting his stamp on the department.

The former MSU head baseball coach and two-time Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year has overseen the hiring of three coaches, while nine teams have advanced to postseason since he took over the helm, seven earning Top 25 rankings with baseball, women's cross country and baseball finishing in the Top 16.

In all, four sports – women's cross country, women's basketball, women's track and field (indoor and outdoor) – posted or tied their highest NCAA Championships/postseason finish in school history.

"I love Mississippi State University," Cohen said. "As a student-athlete, as a coach, and now with this once in a lifetime opportunity, I feel deeply honored to lead MSU's athletics program. I am profoundly grateful for the chance to lead the totality of MSU athletics as I have tried to lead MSU's baseball program – in daily and dogged pursuit of championships at the highest level."

Cohen, who spent more than two decades coaching college baseball, was named MSU's head baseball coach in July of 2008. Nine years later, Cohen's official role in administration began when he assumed the role of associate athletic director in addition to head baseball coach. The following November, he took charge of an athletic department that has since achieved new heights in athletic, academic, facility and fundraising achievements.

FIRST HIRE

One day after becoming athletics director, Cohen named Andy Cannizaro as MSU's next head baseball coach. Cannizaro, a former Major Leaguer and one of the nation's rising coaching stars in college baseball, led the Bulldogs to a Top 10 ranking and trip to the Super Regionals. Subsequent hires by Cohen include women's soccer coach Tom Anagnost and men's golf coach Dusty Smith.

During Cohen's short tenure as director of athletics, the athletic department has enjoyed notable success. In April, the women's basketball team advanced to the national championship game after its historic upset of No. 1 ranked UConn to snap an NCAA-record 111-game winning streak, a feat that garnered Vic Schaefer's team an ESPY award in July.

This achievement came after the Bulldogs played in the SEC Tournament finals, a month before the men's tennis team also played for the conference title.

As an athletic department, MSU placed 49th in the Learfield Director's Cup with 490 points to mark the first time in school history to post back-to-back Top 50 finishes.

As athletic director, Cohen is charged with providing leadership, management, and administration for the university's athletic programs. Cohen is currently overseeing the multi-million dollar renovation of famed Dudy Noble Field to make it the premier facility in all of college baseball.

A Tuscaloosa, Ala., native and MSU alumnus, Cohen was a head coach in the SEC for 12 years. His teams have been successful both on the field and in the classroom. At MSU, he led the Bulldogs to a College World Series finals appearance, an SEC regular season championship and an SEC Tournament championship. Since 2009, MSU baseball has had 133 players selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, including three straight SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year winners from 2013-15.

"I'm fortunate to know our MSU coaches as friends and colleagues, and to know many of our athletes in all sports," Cohen said. "While baseball has been a huge part of my life, my passion for seeing MSU athletics thrive extends to all sports. I'm grateful to Dr. Keenum and the MSU Family for allowing me to embrace these new and critical responsibilities."

PLAYING DAYS

As a baseball player at MSU, Cohen was a key player on the Bulldogs' 1989 SEC championship team and 1990 College World Series team. He graduated from MSU with a degree in English in 1990 and received a master's degree in sports management from the University of Missouri in 1994.

After a six-year stint with Missouri as a graduate assistant and assistant coach, Cohen was the head coach at Northwestern State University from 1998-2001. Cohen spent two seasons as an assistant baseball coach at the University of Florida before becoming the head coach at the University of Kentucky in 2004, a position he held for five seasons before returning to his alma mater.

While winning 284 games as a head coach at MSU, Cohen demonstrated a keen ability to develop players and coaches. During his tenure, 138 MSU baseball players were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including All-American Brent Rooker this June. His influence can be seen throughout the SEC as four of his former assistants are now or have been head coaches — Brad Bohannon (Alabama), Gary Henderson (Kentucky), Nick Mingione (Kentucky) and Butch Thompson (Auburn).

Cohen is the only coach in SEC history to win an SEC championship, SEC tournament championship, and advance to the College World Series both as a player and head coach. Cohen's 2013 Bulldog Club advanced to the CWS championship series for the first time in MSU history. Currently 31 of Cohen's former players are playing professional baseball. Cohen's 2012 club produced an SEC record-tying eight major leaguers. Eight of the university's top ten all-time marks in baseball season ticket sales have come during Cohen's tenure, including a school record of 5,874 in 2014.

Cohen and his wife, Nelle, are active members of the Starkville community. The couple has two daughters, Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

DAN MULLEN INTERVIEWS

All interviews with head coach Dan Mullen should be directed through the MSU Athletic Communications office. Please contact Bill Martin at 662-325-0967 or via email (BMartin@athletics.msstate.edu) to arrange an interview. Coach Mullen has two scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE (Begins Aug. 28)

Coach Mullen will conduct a weekly media conference each Monday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted at the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex. Coach Mullen's press conference begins at 1 p.m. CT. The press conference will also be streamed live on SECNetwork+ via the Watch ESPN app and WatchESPN.com. FTP video will also be emailed out.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE (Begins Aug. 30)

Coach Mullen will join the league's other 13 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. The teleconferences are every Wednesday from Aug. 30-Nov. 22. Coach Mullen's 10-minute segment is scheduled from 11:50 a.m.-12 p.m. CT. The teleconference phone number can be obtained by contacting the SEC Communications Office.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews with players must be arranged through the MSU Communications office. During game week, all player interviews need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Players are typically available following Monday and Tuesday's practices or after Tuesday and Wednesday's practices (depending on that week's schedule) in the media room of the Seal Complex. Player requests are to be emailed to Bill Martin AND Andrew Piper (APiper@athletics.msstate.edu). True freshmen aren't available to media until they see significant action in a game. MSU Athletic Communications will not supply the media home or cell numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Members of the MSU Football staff are available for interviews by appointment through Bill Martin in the MSU Communications Office. Coordinators will address the media in the Seal Complex media room following practice during game weeks with offensive and defensive taking respective days. A schedule will be sent out every week.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call of Davis Wade Stadium opens 2 1/2 hours prior to kickoff at Gate C (SW side of the stadium across from Barnes and Noble). The Robert M. Hartley Press Box, named for longtime Mississippi State Sports Information Director and administrator Bob Hartley, is located on the 200 level of the west side of Davis Wade Stadium. To access the press box, enter Gate C on the west side of Davis Wade Stadium and take the media elevator to Level 2.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available near Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, no motor-homes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance. Satellite truck parking is located at Humphrey Coliseum.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Dan Mullen and selected players will be available for postgame interviews on the second floor of the Seal M-Club Center at the south end of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. MSU players may not be approached on the field following games for interviews. The visiting head coach and players will be available following the game in the visitors media room located adjacent to the visitors locker room in the north end zone.

This media opportunity will be coordinated by the visiting communications staff and Mississippi State Communications personnel.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Football media credential priority is given to media outlets who cover Mississippi State Athletics on an active, consistent and comprehensive basis. Authorized outlets are established and legitimate journalistic endeavors with a proven history of comprehensive coverage.

Newspapers

Preference will be given to those newspapers which cover all Mississippi State football games or the opposing team. Newspapers which cover all home games receive the next priority. Non-daily newspapers will not have access to Southeastern Conference contests.

Television

Priority will be given to those stations which cover all Mississippi State football games or the opposing team. Stations which cover all home games receive the next preference.

Radio Stations

Credentials will be limited to national networks, the two originating team broadcasts, Mississippi State area stations and the opposing team's hometown stations. Credentials will be granted on a space available basis. These stations must cover MSU Athletics or the visiting team on a regular, year-round basis.

Internet Sites

Internet sites will receive credential consideration if they meet the following guidelines:

- Must show intent to be viable news organization, not fan-centric site.
- Overwhelming majority of content must be original-news stories, not satirical/fan-related posts or re-posts of non-original news from other media outlets.
- Must be part of a national network (i.e. ESPN.com, CBSSports.com, SI.com, Scout.com, 247Sports.com, Bleacher Report) or national media entity whose purpose is gathering news and disseminating it.
- Must consistently cover all of MSU's media availability opportunities during game week and consistently cover MSU's other sports OR must consistently cover the opposing team and be approved by the opposing team's media relations/communications staff
- Must have established record of meeting the above criteria, either by individual or organization.

Final approval of all credentials is at the discretion of Mississippi State Athletic Communications.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

- Each photographer is required to wear a photo vest.
- Photo vests must be picked up at Media Will Call located at Gate C of Davis Wade Stadium or in the photo work room. Display the photo credential to the communications representative there and receive a photo vest with a corresponding number. Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
- After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the photo limit line and sideline.
- Tripods are not permitted in the sideline photo vest area. Monopods are permissible.
- The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.
- Photographers are required to kneel when shooting from the new north endzone of Davis Wade Stadium. Standing is not allowed because of the Gridiron fan seating in the endzone.

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKROOM

The new photographers workroom in the Northwest portal of Davis Wade Stadium is for STILL photographers ONLY. Videographers are not permitted in the photo work room. Drinks will be provided throughout the game in the workroom. The seats in the photographers workroom are reserved and set by the MSU Communications staff.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com serves as a one-stop shot for all needs regarding college football. Members can access team headshots and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or by applying for password by sending an email to password@collegepressbox.com.
